

Contents

Abbreviations	xiii
1. Introduction	1
A Francophone Florentine in London	1
Themes and Argument	5
Roles and Rules: Character and Office	5
Political Thinking, Political Thought, Institutions, and Administrative History	10
Concepts, Accountability, and Comparisons	19
Arguments	23
2. Bailiffs and Stewards	25
Two Cases	26
Robert of Chilton	26
John de Valle	29
‘A Reasonable Account of His Time as a Bailiff’	38
The Twelfth and Early Thirteenth Centuries c. 1225–1258	38
The Period of Legislation, 1259–1285	44
The Period of Legislation, 1259–1285	47
The ‘Political Economy’ of the Action of Account	52
Bailiffs’ Accountability and Demesne Farming	52
Early Prescriptive Texts on Estate Management and la moralisation de l’administration	55
Tenure, Law, Accounts: The Political Economy of Bailiffs	60
3. Sheriffs	83
‘Exchequer Rules’: Accountability and the Dialogue of the Exchequer	91
The Culture of Accountability at the Exchequer in the Late Twelfth Century	92
The Dialogue of the Exchequer : ‘That edifies, this enables’	95
The Purpose of Shrieval Accountability: Utility, the Fisc, and the Kingdom’s Good	101
A Game of Chess: The Sheriff’s conflictus at the Exchequer	103
Sheriffs’ Accountability Beyond Exchequer Accounting	110
Exchequer of Pleas, Eyres, and ad hoc Inquiries	110
Tensions and Contradictions within Shrieval Accountability	113
Comparisons: Preferences, Structures, Royal Self-image	121
Conclusions	132
4. Bishops	135
The Accountability of Inquisition	140
Law in Motion: The Complaints against Archbishop Geoffrey of York, 1194–1202	142

Geoffrey of York's Inquisitions in Context	148
Legal Learning	148
The Politics of Inquisitorial Accountability	154
Sociological Aspects of Canonical Inquisitions	165
The Inquisition into Walter Langton, Bishop of Coventry and Lichfield	173
Conclusions	183
5. Wardens and Fellows	185
Wardens and Colleges	185
The View from Merton College, Oxford	187
Pecham at Merton	187
Lessons from Merton	191
'College Peculiars'	209
Intellectuals, Poverty, Self-administration	210
Sources and Reasons	214
Conclusions: Omnibus et singulis	220
6. Conclusions	222
Parallels, Differences, Similarities	226
'Who, Whom?'	226
Delegation and Access	229
Control of Officers: Insiders and Outsiders	231
Local Political Structures, Values, and Officers' Accountability	232
Causes, Conditions, Correlations	236
Institutional Development, Intellectual Capability, and the rector's
Conscience	236
Étatisation and Official Accountability?	239
Elective Affinities	241
Effects	246
Unintended Consequences	246
Effects and Their Problems	248
Accountability and Justice?	253
Bibliography	261
List of Manuscripts and Rolls Consulted	261
Editions of Sources	262
Secondary Sources	273
Online Resources	302
Indices	303