

---

Contents

PREFACE

ix

1

Antecedents

Sir Frances Galton	1
Alfred Binet	3
Charles Spearman	7
Thurstone and the Doctrine of Simple Structure	14

2

The Structure of Intellect

Raymond B. Cattell	19
J. P. Guilford	39
Conclusion	56

3

Quantitative Characteristics of Intellectual Indices

The Distribution of Ability	59
Stability and Change in Intelligence	63
The Special Case of "Infant Intelligence"	69
Age-Related Changes in Intelligence	77

4

Intelligence and Achievement

Intelligence and School Success	88
Intelligence and Occupational Status	91
Intelligence and Success at an Occupation	98
Intelligence and Accomplishment	105

5Determinants of Scores on Tests of Intelligence

Genetics and Intelligence	111
Biological Environment and Intelligence	139
The Social Environment and Intelligence	157

6Group Differences in Intelligence Test Scores

Race and Intelligence Test Scores	167
Magnitude Arguments	171
Pattern of Black–White Difference in Scores	177
Regression Arguments	189
Conclusion: Racial Differences in Intelligence	199
Birth Order, Family Size, and Intelligence	201

7Conclusion: The Use of Intelligence Tests

Tests and the Public Schools	207
Tests and Selection	212
Clinical Use of Intelligence Tests	219
A Concluding Comment	225

REFERENCES	227
------------	-----

SUBJECT INDEX	239
---------------	-----