

Contents

	page
Preface	V
 RUDOLF SÜHNEL
Laudatio	IX
Tabula gratulatoria	XI
 SACVAN BERCOVITCH
The Ideological Context of the American Renaissance	1
 HANS GALINSKY
History and the Colonial American Humorist: Thomas Morton and The Burwell Papers	21
 EVERETT EMERSON
Hector St. John de Crèvecoeur and the Promise of America	44
 MARCUS CUNLIFFE
'The Earth Belongs to the Living': Thomas Jefferson and the Limits of Inheritance	56
 ARMIN PAUL FRANK
The Long Withdrawing Roar: 80 Years of the Ocean's Message in American Poetry	71
 LARZER ZIFF
Questions of Identity: Hawthorne and Emerson Visit England	91
 HORST KRUSE
Hawthorne and the Matrix of History: The Andros Matter and 'The Gray Champion'	103
 KLAUS POENICKE
Fortune's Wheel and Revolution: On the Picaresque View of History ..	120

Contents

WINFRIED FLUCK	page
The Restructuring of History and the Intrusion of Fantasy in Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court	134
RUDOLF HAAS
'God Bless Tauchnitz': Some Observations on Hemingway's Paris Sket- ches	149
JÜRGEN PEPPER
Paradise Regained. Marshall McLuhan's Instructive Escape from History	160
URSULA BRUMM
American Writers and European History: Nathaniel Hawthorne and Mark Twain	180
(translated from the German by Willi Paul Adams and Jerry Schuchalter)
Publications by Ursula Brumm, 1955—1980	197
Index	201
The Contributors	205