

CONTENTS

FRONTISPIECE	ii
FOREWORD by A J AITKEN	vii
DAVID D MURISON: PUBLICATIONS	xv
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	xix
1 The Gododdin and Other Heroic Poems of Scotland M P McDIARMID	1
2 The Language of Older Scots Poetry A J AITKEN	18
3 The Biography of Alexander Scott and the Authorship of Lo, quhat it is to lufe JOHN MacQUEEN	50
4 Language Choice in the Reformation: The Scots Confession of 1560 MAIRI ROBINSON	59
5 The Vernacular Revival and the Poetic Thrill: A Hedonistic Approach THOMAS CRAWFORD	79
6 At the Foot o' Yon Excellin' Brae : The Language of Scots Folksong HAMISH HENDERSON	100
7 Scots in Dialogue: Some uses and implications J DERRICK McCLURE	129
8 An Awkward Squad: Some Scots Poets from Stevenson to Spence KENNETH BUTHLAY	149

9	Mid Twentieth Century Drama in Lowland Scots JOHN THOMAS LOW	170
10	Glasgow Speech in Recent Scottish Literature EDWIN MORGAN	195
11	An Onomastic Vernacular in Scottish Literature W F H NICOLAISEN	209
	INDEX	219