

Contents

Part I Classification

Chapter 1	Introduction	3
Chapter 2	Lexical Analysis: A New Approach	6
Chapter 3	Author's Motivation for a Speech Act Classification	13
Chapter 4	Description and Explanation of the Method	15
	4.1 Brief Statement of the Goal	15
	4.2 Selection of Verbs	15
	4.3 Formation of Categories	17
	4.4 Formation of Models	23
	4.5 The System of Models	30
Chapter 5	Survey of the Resulting Speech Act Classification	33
Chapter 6	Prospects and Limitations	39
	6.1 Relation to the Classification of the Entire Verb Thesaurus	39
	6.2 A General Theoretical Perspective	41
	6.3 Criticisms of Our Own Proposals	48
	6.4 Criticisms of Competing Proposals	53
	6.4.1 Remarks on Austin's Classification of Speech Acts	53
	6.4.2 Remarks on Searle's Classification of Speech Acts	55
	6.4.3 Remarks on the Notion of Meaning in Speech Act Theory	60
	6.5 Applications	61
Chapter 7	References	64
	Bibliography	67

Part II Lexicon Sections

	Directions for Using Lexicon Section I	70
Chapter 8	Lexicon Section I
	Semantic Classification of Speech Act Verbs	71
	8.1 EM Emotion Model	71
	8.2 EN Enaction Model	74
	8.3 KA Struggle Model	85
	8.4 NO Institutional Model	107
	8.5 W Valuation Models	118
	8.6 D Discourse Models	124
	8.7 X Text Models	134
	8.8 T Theme Models	155
	Directions for Using Lexicon Section II	168
Chapter 9	Lexicon Section II
	Alphabetic Index of Speech Act Verbs	169