

CONTENTS

	Book editors and contributors	v
	Introduction	1
	Sharon Goodman and David Graddol
1	Text, time and technology in news English	3
	Allan Bell
	1.1 Introduction	3
	1.2 English, news and time	3
	1.3 Discourse structure of news English	12
	1.4 Time in news work	14
	1.5 Producing news English	16
	1.6 Time and technology in news English	22
	1.7 Conclusion	26
	Reading A Extract 1 from 'When? Deadlines, datelines, and history'	27
	Michael Schudson
	Reading B Extract 2 from 'When? Deadlines, datelines, and history'	28
	Michael Schudson
	Reading C Extract from 'Why and how? The dark continent of American journalism'	30
	James W. Carey
	Reading D Time, space and television commentary	33
	Stephanie Marriott
2	Visual English	38
	Sharon Goodman
	2.1 Introduction	38
	2.2 Visual or verbal English?	44
	2.3 Some elements of English visual grammar	52
	2.4 Visual narratives	60
	2.5 Moving English: the visual language of film	71
	2.6 Conclusion	72
	Reading A The semiotic construction of a wine label	73
	David Graddol
	Reading B Moving English: the visual language of film	81
	Theo van Leeuwen
3	English in cyberspace	106
	Simeon Yates
	3.1 Introduction	106
	3.2 What is the Internet?	106
	3.3 English and the Internet	112
	3.4 New texts, new genres	118
	3.5 New texts, new subjectivity	124
	3.6 'Imagined communities'	129
	3.7 Conclusion	133

	Reading A I fell into the safety net Stephen Fry	134
	Reading B All the news that fits on screen Jon Snow	135
	Reading C Communication and new subjects Mark Poster	137
4	Market forces speak English Sharon Goodman	141
	4.1 Introduction	141
	4.2 Informalization	142
	4.3 The marketization of English	147
	4.4 Designing the language of employees: 'speaking another language' at work	159
	4.5 Conclusion	163
	Reading A Extract from Verbal Hygiene Deborah Cameron	165
	Reading B Selling in Singapore Anthea Fraser Gupta	169
	Reading C The marketization of public discourse: the universities Norman Fairclough	177
5	Global English, global culture? David Graddol	181
	5.1 Introduction	181
	5.2 The Utopian dream and the global rise of English	182
	5.3 English as a killer language	196
	5.4 English and the creation of social inequality	200
	5.5 English and communications media	205
	5.6 Conclusion	216
	Reading A Language loss in Australian Aboriginal languages R.M.W. Dixon	218
	Reading B The products of English-medium education in Papua New Guinea Naihuwo Ahai and Nicholas Faraclas	219
	Reading C Canada and the streaming of immigrants Patricia Tomic and Ricardo Trumper	223
	Reading D The new spaces of global media Kevin Robins	225
	Reading E English in Sweden in the age of satellite television Olle Findahl	228
	Reading F Dubbing American in Italy Nigel J. Ross	234
	References	239
	Acknowledgements	245
	Index	247