
Contents

SECTION ONE | The Study of Language

- 1. Language As a Scientific Subject Matter 3
- 2. Constituent Structure 10
- 3. Deep Structures, Surface Structures, and Transformations 17
- 4. Transformations and Elementary Transformational Processes 23
- 5. Linguistic Explanation and Ordered Rules 30

SECTION TWO | Constituents and Features

- 6. Determining the Constituents of a Sentence 37
- 7. Noun Phrase Constituents 44
- 8. Verb Phrase Constituents 52
- 9. Features, Lexical Items, and Deep Structures 59
- 10. Constituent Functions 70

SECTION THREE | Segment Transformations and Syntactic Processes

- 11. Articles, Suffixes, and Segment Transformations 81
- 12. Pronouns and Articles 92
- 13. Verbals and Particles 100
- 14. Aspect—Perfect and Progressive 108

	15. The Auxiliary	120
	16. Agreement	130
	17. Prepositions	136
18. Prepositions, Indirect Objects, and the Cross-Over Principle		143
	19. Questions	150

SECTION FOUR | Sentence Embedding

20. Noun Phrase Complements and Complementizers	163
21. Extraposition and "It" Deletion	171
22. Indirect (or Embedded) Questions	179
23. "It" Replacement, Reflexives, and Synonymy	184
24. Verb Phrase Complements	192
25. Relative Clauses	199

SECTION FIVE | *Simplicity and
Linguistic Explanation*

26. Pronouns and Case	217
27. Simplicity and the Search for Deep Structures	224
28. The Cyclic Principle	235

SECTION SIX | Conjunction

29. Conjunction and Non-Restrictive Clauses	253
Epilogue	267
Index	290