

CONTENTS

FOREWORD BY DAVID CRYSTAL.....	9
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.....	11
1 INTRODUCTION.....	12
2 THE BEGINNINGS OF ENGLISH.....	16
(1) UNDLEY COMMON – the earliest written English (c.475) .....	17
(2) CANTERBURY – the adoption of the Roman alphabet (602) .....	19
(3) HAMMERWICH – Mercian English, our ancestor dialect (c.700) .....	20
(4) MONKWEARMOUTH – naming the English language (731) .....	22
(5) YORK – the influence of Danish on the English language (866) .....	23
(6) WINCHESTER – West Saxon English and King Alfred (871) .....	25
(7) CERNE – Classical Old English (c.1000) .....	27
(8) HASTINGS – the influence of French on the English language (1066) .....	29
(9) DUNFERMLINE – the English language in Scotland (1068) .....	31
MIDDLE ENGLISH.....	34
(10) PETERBOROUGH – the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle and the end of Old English (1155) .....	35
(11) READING – the English language in popular song (c.1235) .....	37
(12) WESTMINSTER – the recovery of the English language (1362) .....	39
(13) KILKENNY – the English language in Ireland (1366) .....	43
(14) ALDGATE – the development of Middle English (1374) .....	45
(15) CHANCERY STREET – Chancery English (c.1419) .....	47
(16) ST PAUL'S CHURCHYARD – the English language and the book trade (1456) .....	50
(17) PEMBROKE – the English language in Wales (1457) .....	51

7 THE INDUSTRIAL AGE .....	122
(48) STOCKTON-ON-TEES – the English language and the steam engine (1825) ...	123
(49) HARTFORD – establishing an American standard for English (1828) .....	124
(50) CHENNAI – the English language in India (1834) .....	126
(51) ST MARTIN-LE-GRAND – the English language and the Uniform Penny Post (1840).....	128
(52) WAITANGI – the English language in New Zealand (1840).....	129
(53) THE STRAND – English as a language of satire (1841).....	132
(54) BALTIMORE – the English language and the telegram (1844).....	134
(55) SALFORD – literacy and free libraries 1850 .....	135
(56) HANNIBAL – English comic writing 1851 .....	137
(57) HYDE PARK – industrialization and its impact on English 1851 .....	138
(58) TIMES SQUARE – The New York Times (1851) .....	141
(59) MANCHESTER – the vocabulary of English and the thesaurus (1852).....	143
(60) BERDICHEV – exophonic English (1857).....	144
(61) CHRISTCHURCH COLLEGE – English nonsense (1865).....	146
(62) LLANFAIRPWLLGWYNGYLL – English place names (1868).....	148
(63) EXETER PLACE – the English language and the telephone (1876) .....	150
(64) CAPE TOWN – the English language in South Africa (1881) .....	152
(65) DUBLIN – extreme English (1882).....	154
(66) GISBORNE – English slang (1894).....	156
8 THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.....	158
(67) POLDHU – the English language and the radio (1901) .....	159
(68) NEWGATE – the English language and prison patter (1902).....	161
(69) NEW ORLEANS – African American English (1902) .....	164
(70) FLEET STREET – tabloid English (1903) .....	165
(71) NEW YORK – the language of crosswords (1913) .....	168
(72) HAYMARKET – rude English (1914) .....	171
(73) GUERNSEY – modern English usage (1926) .....	173
(74) PORTLAND PLACE – BBC English (1926).....	174
(75) OXFORD – the Oxford English Dictionary (1928) .....	177
(76) BLETCHLEY PARK – English language and code (1939).....	179
(77) EMPIRE STATE BUILDING – the language of advertising (1941) .....	181
(78) ISLINGTON – plain English (1946).....	184
(79) ETON – the English of the English upper class (1956) .....	185
(80) LIVERPOOL – British urban English (1963).....	187
(81) ATLANTIC CITY – sexist English (1968) .....	190

9	THE TECHNOLOGICAL REVOLUTION.....	192
(82)	SEA OF TRANQUILLITY – English on the moon (1969) .....	193
(83)	LOS ANGELES – the language of e-mail (1969).....	195
(84)	BELMOPAN – the English language in Belize (1970).....	196
(85)	ST PANCRAS – the British Library (1973).....	198
(86)	ISLAMABAD – the English language in Pakistan (1973).....	200
(87)	THE BRONX – the language of rap (1973).....	202
(88)	SAN JOSE – the English language and text preservation (1975) .....	203
(89)	SINGAPORE – English in Singapore (1987).....	205
(90)	GENEVA – the language of the World Wide Web (1991) .....	207
(91)	HELSINKI – the English language and texting (1993).....	209
(92)	SWARTHMORE – the language of the blog (1994) .....	211
(93)	NICHOLSON STREET – a global reading phenomenon (1995) .....	212
(94)	WINDRUSH SQUARE – multicultural London English (1998) .....	214
(95)	SAN FRANCISCO – Twitter English (2006) .....	216
(96)	BEVERLY HILLS – Teen Speak (2008).....	218
(97)	KIGALI – English as an official language (2008) .....	219
(98)	NEWCASTLE – the English language and contemporary regional accents (2011).....	221
(99)	BEIJING – English and Mandarin (2012) .....	223
(100)	VIENNA – English as a global lingua franca (2012) .....	225
	AFTERWORD .....	227
	REFERENCES.....	229
	BIBLIOGRAPHY.....	241