

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
Seán Hand
1. The Revival of French Jewry in Post-Holocaust France: Challenges and Opportunities	26
David Weinberg
2. The Encounter between “Native” and “Immigrant” Jews in Post-Holocaust France: Negotiating Difference	38
Maud Mandel
3. Centralizing the Political Jewish Voice in Post-Holocaust France: Discretion and Development	58
Samuel Ghiles-Meilhac
4. Post-Holocaust Book Restitutions: How One State Agency Helped Revive Republican Franco-Judaism	71
Lisa Moses Leff
5. Lost Children and Lost Childhoods: Memory in Post-Holocaust France	85
Daniella Doron
6. Orphans of the Shoah and Jewish Identity in Post-Holocaust France: From the Individual to the Collective	118
Susan Rubin Suleiman
7. Jewish Children’s Homes in Post-Holocaust France: Personal Témoignages	139
Lucille Cairns
8. Post-Holocaust French Writing: Reflecting on Evil in 1947	156
Bruno Chaouat

9. Léon Poliakov, the Origins of Holocaust Studies, and Theories of Anti-Semitism: Rereading Bréviaire de la haine Jonathan Judaken	169
10. André Neher: A Post-Shoah Prophetic Vocation Edward K. Kaplan	193
11. René Cassin and the Alliance Israélite Universelle: A Republican in Post-Holocaust France Jay Winter	203
About the Contributors	227
Index	231