

List of Illustrations	viii
Acknowledgments	xiv
Introduction: Visual Pragmatism for a Virtual World	2
I Enlightenment/Re-Enlightenment
1 The Visualization of Knowledge from the Enlightenment to Postmodernism	20
2 Display and the Rhetoric of Corruption	42
3 The Eighteenth Century at the End of Modernity	54
4 The New Imagist	68
II Practicing Vision
5 Making Images Real	82
6 Desperately Seeking Connections: Linking the Internet to Eighteenth-Century Laboratory Life	90
7 The Natural History of Design: Humbert de Superville and Postmodern Theory	112
8 An Image of One's Own	122
III Aesthetical Ethics
9 Medical Ethics as Postmodern Aesthetics	130
10 Picturing Ambiguity	146
11 Difficult Content, or the Pleasures of Viewing Pain	168
Conclusion: Analogy in an Age of Difference	200
Notes	214
Index	246