

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

CHAPTER 1	ORIENTATION	1
	Introduction to the major problem areas	1
	Description and outline	3
	Delimitations and programming	9
CHAPTER II	BOMVANALAND AND ITS INHABITANTS	11
	Geographical description	11
	History of the Bomvana tribe and its contacts with western culture	12
	Social and political organization	17
	Socio-economic life	20
	Disease pattern and health conditions	21
	The mind and personality of the Bomvana tribesman	23
	Bomvana religion	28
	— Ancestor worship	29
	— Ritual practice	30
	— The character of Bomvana religion	31
CHAPTER III	CONFRONTATION WITH BOMVANA MEDICINE	33
	Bomvana healers	35
	Initiation of diviners	36
	Xhosa medical conceptions	37
	— A. Prolegomena	37
	— B. Notions of causation	38
	Bomvana divination	43
	Diagnostics	44
CHAPTER IV	INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION IN MEDICINE	49
	Communication theories	50
	The structure of communication	51
	Intercultural aspects	53
	Intercultural communication problems	56
	The doctor-patient relationship	58

The patient's role	62
Basic models of the doctor-patient relationship	68
CHAPTER V INTRODUCING THE ANAMNESIS AMONG THE BOMVANA	71
Basic considerations	71
Intercultural aspects	73
Establishing contact	75
The setting of the interview	78
Preliminary questions	78
Initiating the medical interview	80
The idiom of the patient in reference to his illness	84
Past history	93
Review of systems	97
Family history	100
Comprehensive history taking	101
CHAPTER VI THROUGH EXAMINATION TO DIAGNOSIS	104
Intercultural aspects	107
Barriers to communication	109
Introduction to diagnosis	113
Explaining to the patients	120
CHAPTER VII PROGNOSIS AND THERAPEUTIC ACTION	129
Prognostic elements in Xhosa medicine	130
Intercultural barriers	131
Therapeutic action	135
Indigenous treatment	135
Therapeutic relationship	137
Treatment setting	142
Healing aspects of treatment	144
Patterns of compliance	147
Compliance with the TB. regimen in two clinics	150
Cooperation in the hospital	157
CHAPTER VIII THE PREVENTIVE APPROACH AND HEALTH EDUCATION	161
Indigenous prevention	162
Western prevention	164
Communication aspects	165
Medical care and health services	170
The practice of prevention	172
Child health clinics	178
Health education	183
— Basic considerations	184
— Aims and tasks of health education	185
— Methods and strategy	187

NOTES	198
BIBLIOGRAPHY	203
CONCISE GLOSSARY OF XHOSA TERMS	217
SUBJECT INDEX	219