

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements vii

Introduction

WILLEMIJN RUBERG 1

PART I: HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES

1 An Individual of Feeling: Emotion, Gender, and Subjectivity
in Historical Perspectives on Sensibility
E. DEIDRE PRIBRAM 21

2 'Pale & Dejected Exhausted by the Waste of Sorrow':
Courtship and the Expression of Emotion, Mary Shackleton,
1783-1791
KEVIN O'NEILL 47

3 Divine Providence and Resignation: The Role of Religion in the Management of the Emotions of the Anglo-Irish Countess of Dunraven, Caroline Wyndham-Quin (1790-1870)
ODETTE CLARKE 71

PART II: LITERARY PERSPECTIVES

4 Emotion, Performance and Gender in Shakespeare's Hamlet
KRISTINE STEENBERGH 93

5 Monstrous Masculinity and Emotional Torture in William Godwin's Fleetwood; or, the New Man of Feeling
EVERT JAN VAN LEEUWEN 117

6 The Double Wound: Shame and Trauma
in Joy Kogawa's Obasan
SINÉAD MCDERMOTT 141

7	Quentin Crisp, Camp and the Art of Shamelessness INGRID HOTZ-DAVIES	165
---	--	-----

PART III: SOCIAL SCIENCE PERSPECTIVES

8	The Social Psychologising of Emotion and Gender: A Critical Perspective ABIGAIL LOCKE	185
---	---	-----

9	Empathy, Emotion and Feminist Solidarities BREDA GRAY	207
---	--	-----

	Contributors	233
--	---------------------	-----

	Index	237
--	--------------	-----