

CONTENTS

	Page
PREFACE	v
INTRODUCTION	1
I. THE MORALITY AS A GENRE	6
Usage of the Term	6
Five Moralities	7
The Case of Everyman	15
II. BACKGROUND AND TRADITIONS	20
The Fifteenth Century	20
The Drama of the Mass	22
Other Traditions and Basic Notions	24
Costume, Gesture, Music	28
Open Stage or In-the-Round?	31
III. DRAMATIC TECHNIQUES AND STAGECRAFT IN THE FIVE MORALITIES	33
The Castle of Perseverance	33
Wisdom	68
Mankind	73
The Pride of Life	83
Everyman	87
IV. CHARACTERISATION IN THE FIVE MORAL- ITIES	96
The Human Kind	96
The Characterisation of God	105
Death	108
The Forces of Good and Evil	110
The Vice	114

V. IDEA AND FORM IN THE FIVE MORALITIES	Page 120
○ Space and Time	120
○ Dualism	128
○ Cognate Forms—Sermon and Play	131
○ Plot and Organisation	132
○ Beginning, Middle and End	135
(Banns and Prologue;	136
× Central Images —The Pilgrimage of Life	139
The Battle of Life	140
The Coming of Death	142
The Debate and Intercession of the Four Daughters of God;	144
Epilogue)	146
VI. CONCLUSION	147
Plays for Performing	148
Postscript	155
Envoy	156
APPENDIX I. Medieval Theatre-in-the-Round—A Myth in the Making?	157
APPENDIX II. A Note on the Literature	169
BIBLIOGRAPHY	173
INDEX	189