

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	v
Abbreviations	ix
Introduction	1
1. The survival of medieval and Renaissance literary manuscripts	1
2. Writing materials	4
a. Parchment and vellum	4
b. Paper	5
c. The manuscript book	6
d. Pen and ink	7
3. The terminology of handwriting	8
a. General	8
b. The action of the pen	8
c. Letters	8
d. Scripts	9
4. The succession of literary scripts	10
a. General	10
b. English handwriting to the time of Chaucer	10
c. From Chaucer to Skelton— text, anglicana, secretary, hybrid	13
d. From More to Shakespeare— secretary and italic	15
e. From Donne to Dryden— mixed and round hands	20
f. Notes on departmental hands	21
5. Abbreviation	22
6. Punctuation	25
7. Numerals	28
8. Manuscript corrections	28
9. Scribal errors and textual emendation	29
10. Comparison of hands, dating, forgery	32
11. Methods of transcribing and editing	34
12. Editorial principles in the text	35
Notes to Introduction	37
List of Plates	42
List of identified hands	43
Text	44
Select Bibliography	126
Index	129