

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	9
1. Life Crisis as a Precursor to Child Abuse	25
Too Much Change Too Fast
Why Violence toward Child?
Competition between Spouses
Sexual Difficulties
2. Causal Models of Child Abuse	37
No “Mothering Imprint”
Immature and Lonely
Ignorant of Child Rearing
Family Coalitions
Environmental Stress
Psychopathic States
Mental Illness

4 CONTENTS

3.	The Abusing Family: A Psychosocial System and Shifting Symbiosis	55
	Both Parents the Same
	Generation after Generation
	No Separate Identity
	Transactional Analysis Terms
	Frantic Struggle
	Scripts of Abusers
4.	Epidemiological Features of Child Abuse	84
	Child as Property
	Increase in Cases
	Characteristics of Parents
	Characteristics of Child
	Profiles of the Abused and Abusing
	Cultural Scripting
	Circumstances of Abuse
5.	Innovative Interventions in the Abusing Family	109
	Treating Both Parents
	Six Areas of Concern
	When Safe for Child at Home
	Goal Attainment Guide
	Mothering of Parents
	Handling Feelings about Spouse
6.	Group Therapy Techniques with Abusing Parents	145
	Breaking the Symbiosis
	More Strokes in Life
	Talking with Mate
	Impatience and Temper
	Child Development and Management
	A Job and Self-Esteem
	Denise's Story
7.	Alternative Approaches to Secondary Prevention	183
	Early Warning Signs of Abuse
	Lay Therapists

Visiting Public Health Nurse
Homemakers
Child Care Services
Courses on Parenting
Child Abuse Registries
Self-Help Groups
Counseling by Caseworkers
Modes of Psychotherapy
Coordinated Team Approach
8. Primary Prevention of Child Abuse	229
Health Visitors Program
Parent Licensing and Training
Family Planning
High-Risk Parents
High-Risk Children
High-Risk Environments
Public Education
Manpower and Other Resources
Bibliography	275
Index	285