

Contents

PREFACE 11

ONE / "This Is Our High Argument" 17

1. Wordsworth's Program for Poetry 21
2. The Design of Biblical History 32
3. The Shape of Things to Come: The Apocalyptic Marriage 37
4. Christian History and Christian Psycho-Biography 46
5. Alternative Ways to the Millennium: Progress and Revolution 56
6. Natural Supernaturalism 65

TWO / Wordsworth's Prelude and the Crisis-Autobiography 71

1. The Idea of The Prelude 74
2. Proust's Gothic Church 80
3. The Art of Augustine's Confessions 83
4. The Transactions of Mind and Nature 88
5. The Theodicy of the Private Life 95
6. The Theodicy of the Landscape 97
7. The Redemptive Imagination 117

- 8. The New Mythos: Wordsworth, Keats, and Carlyle 122
- 9. Wordsworth as Evangelist 134

THREE / The Circuitous Journey: Pilgrims and Prodigals 141

- 1. The Great Circle: Pagan and Christian Neoplatonism 146
- 2. Divided and Reunited Man: The Esoteric Tradition 154
- 3. The Prodigal's Return 164
- 4. Forms of Romantic Imagination 169

FOUR / The Circuitous Journey: Through Alienation to Reintegration 197

- 1. The Paradox of the Fortunate Division: Schiller and Universal History 201
- 2. Romantic Philosophy and the High Romantic Argument 217
- 3. Hegel's Phenomenology of the Spirit: Metaphysical Structure and Narrative Plot 225
- 4. Some Other Educational Travelers: Hölderlin's Hyperion, Goethe's Faust, the Romances of Novalis 237

FIVE / The Circuitous Journey: From Blake to D. H. Lawrence 253

- 1. Unity Lost and Integrity Earned: Blake and Coleridge 256
- 2. Wordsworth: The Long Journey Home 278
- 3. Romantic Love 292
- 4. Shelley's Prometheus Unbound 299
- 5. Carlyle and His Contemporaries 307
- 6. Four Versions of the Circuitous Return: Marx, Nietzsche, Eliot, Lawrence 313

SIX / Revelation, Revolution, Imagination, and Cognition	325
1. Apocalypse by Revolution	329
2. Apocalypse by Imagination	335
3. Apocalypse by Cognition	348
4. The Politics of Vision: Mastery, Servitude, and Freedom	356
SEVEN / The Poet's Vision: The New Earth and the Old	373
1. Freshness of Sensation	377
2. Moments	385
3. Transvaluations	390
4. Hamann and Wordsworth: Some Parallels in Spiritual Discovery	399
EIGHT / The Poet's Vision: Romantic and Post-Romantic	409
1. Freshness of Sensation and the Disordering of the Senses	412
2. Varieties of the Modern Moment	418
3. The Romantic Positives	427
4. The World's Song of Life and Joy	431
5. The Romantic Reverdie	437
6. Hope and Dejection	442
7. The Eagle and the Abyss	448
APPENDIX / Wordsworth's Prospectus for The Recluse	463
1. In the Preface to The Excursion	465
2. The Manuscripts of the Prospectus	470
	NOTES 481
	INDEX 533
	ILLUSTRATIONS BETWEEN PAGES 464 AND 465