

	Pantomime	89
	Melodrama	91
	Actors	95
	Poets as Playwrights	101
	Thomas Lovell Beddoes	105
CHAPTER V.	Poets and a Gallery of "Sophisters, Economists, and Calculators"	109
	Poetry and Power	109
	Adam Smith	113
	Thomas R. Malthus	117
	Jeremy Bentham	120
	Edmund Burke	123
	Thomas Paine	126
	Mary Wollstonecraft	129
	William Godwin	131
	Robert Owen	135
	Samuel Taylor Coleridge	139
	Poets and Politics	142
CHAPTER VI.	Heroes and Heroism	145
	The Decline of Heroism	145
	The Royal Family and Friends	147
	Beau Brummell	153
	Religious Heroes	156
	Warrior Heroes: Nelson, Wellington, and Napoleon	163
	The Byronic Hero	168
	PART II. The Illusion of History	173
CHAPTER VII.	Inventing the Past	175
	The Uses of the Bible	176
	The Druids	180
	The Hellenic Revival	182
	The Erotic Theme	185
	The Platonic Theme	189
	The Elgin Marbles	191
	Dionysus in England	192
	Percy Bysshe Shelley: The Hellenic Fulfillment	194
	The Hellenic Twilight	206

	Idealism: Berkeley and the Poets	295
	The Common Sense Philosophers	296
	Physiognomy and Phrenology	297
	Fragmented Philosophy and Philosophical Poetry	299
	The Imagination	301
	William Wordsworth	309
	Wordsworth and the Guidebooks	317
CHAPTER XII.	Painting and the Other Visual Arts	322
	The Awakening of the Visual Arts	322
	William Blake	323
	The State of the Arts	327
	The Professionalization of the Fine Arts	329
	Benjamin Robert Haydon: Exemplary Failure	333
	Illustration and Portraiture	334
	Physiognomy, Natural History, and Animal Painting	337
	Painting Animals and Illustrating Natural History	339
	John Constable: Painting as Earth Science	341
	J. M. W. Turner: Painting as Physical Science	345
CHAPTER XIII.	Science	351
	The Chain of Being and the Chain of Life	352
	Analogical Thinking	354
	Electricity	356
	Naturphilosophie	358
	What Is Life?	359
	Science and Poetry	360
	Humphry Davy: Poet Scientist	361
	Science and "The Household of Man"	364
	The Professionalization of Science	367
	Science and Technology	370
	The Limits of Knowledge	372
	Enfranchisement of the Human Imagination	374
NOTES		377
INDEX		417

Contents

PREFACE		vii
	PART I. The Human Context	1
CHAPTER I.	People during the Romantic Age	3
CHAPTER II.	The Literary Marketplace	12
	Publishers	12
	The Reviews	16
	William Hazlitt	20
	Magazines	27
	Leigh Hunt	31
	Thomas De Quincey	34
	Newspapers	42
	William Cobbett	45
	Religious Tracts: Hannah More	47
CHAPTER III.	Children's Literature and Education	50
	The Didactic Background	50
	Rousseau and His Influence	53
	Maria Edgeworth	55
	Educational Systems	58
	William Godwin	64
	Charles and Mary Lamb	66
	Poems for Children	71
	Robert Southey and "The Three Bears"	75
	The Birth of Fantasy	78
CHAPTER IV.	The Theater	81
	Licensed Theaters	81
	Unlicensed Theaters	85