

Table of Contents

Foreword	ix
List of Abbreviations	xiii
List of Emblems	xiv
Chapter 1 "Is there in truth no beautie?": Protestant Poetics and the Protestant Paradigm of Salvation	3
PART I Biblical Poetics
Chapter 2 Biblical Genre Theory: Precepts and Models for the Religious Lyric	31
Chapter 3 The Poetic Texture of Scripture: Tropes and Figures for the Religious Lyric	72
Chapter 4 The Biblical Symbolic Mode: Typology and the Religious Lyric	111
PART II Ancillary Genres
Chapter 5 Protestant Meditation: Kinds, Structures, and Strategies of Development for the Meditative Lyric	147
Chapter 6 Protestant Emblematics: Sacred Emblems and Religious Lyrics	179
Chapter 7 Art and the Sacred Subject: Sermon Theory, Biblical Personae, and Protestant Poetics	213
PART III The Flowering of the English Religious Lyric
Chapter 8 John Donne: Writing after the Copy of a Metaphorical God	253
Chapter 9 George Herbert: Artful Psalms from the Temple in the Heart	283
Chapter 10 Henry Vaughan: Pleading in Groans of My Lord's Penning	317
Chapter 11 Thomas Traherne: Naked Truth, Transparent Words, and the Renunciation of Metaphor	352

Chapter 12	Edward Taylor: Lips of Praise and Strategies for Self-Dispraise	388
	Afterword	427
	Notes	429
	Index	507