

Contents

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Preface   | ix         |
| Introduction: The Cult of Power   | 1   |
| 1. Heroic Action: Narratives of Imperialism   | 18  |
| Heroic action in The Rescue   | 28         |
| The hero ironised: Lord Jim and Nostramo   | 39         |
| Jesters and heroes: Chesterton, Shaw and Napoleon  | 49         |
| 2. Superhuman Arts: Narratives of Nationalistic Faith                                   | 64  |
| Martyred prophets: Buchan's Prester John and Shaw's St Joan                      | 73         |
| 'Some queer dark god': Lawrence's 'leadership' novels of the twenties                          | 82         |
| Demonic enchantments: The Magician, Mephisto and the rise of fascism                           | 96         |
| 3. Sexual Dominance: Leaders and Lovers in Fiction                                      |            |
| Between the Wars  | 107 |
| Lawless sheiks and living Quetzalcoatl   | 116        |
| Sex symbols satirised: Huxley's Point Counter Point and Lewis's Revenge for Love | 130        |
| Unsubmissive women   | 140        |
| 4. Violence: The Thirties Thriller and 'the Gathering Storm'                            |            |
| Household's Rogue Male : 'a beast in its den'   | 155        |
| Eric Ambler and the 'infernal machine'   | 166        |
| Graham Greene: 'the house infected'  | 174        |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| 5. Law: The Liberal Critique and the Totalitarian Nightmare                       | 196 |
| The critique of liberal justice: A Passage to India and It's a Battlefield | 204        |
| The totalitarian nightmare: Trial of a Judge and Darkness at Noon          | 222        |
| 6. Technopower: 'Leviathan on Wheels' in Dystopian Science Fiction                | 236 |
| Man/machine  | 246        |
| Individual/mass  | 259        |
| Energy/entropy   | 268        |
| Bibliography   | 283        |
| Index  | 297        |