

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Acknowledgments | xi |
| Phase One | |
| Chapter 1. Colonial Slavery and Protest: Text and Context | 3 |
| Chapter 2. Oroonoko : Birth of a Paradigm | 27 |
| Chapter 3. Seventeenth-Century Quaker Women: Displacement, Colonialism, Anti-Slavery | 51 |
| Chapter 4. Inkle and Yarico: an Anti-Slavery Reading | 69 |
| Chapter 5. Sentiment and Amelioration | 91 |
| Chapter 6. Emerging Resistance | 113 |
| Phase Two | |
| Chapter 7. The Parliamentary Campaign: New Debates | 145 |
| Chapter 8. The Radical Impulse: Before the French Revolution | 165 |
| Chapter 9. The Radical Impulse: After the French Revolution | 185 |
| Chapter 10. Reactions to San Domingo (1): Cheap Repository Tracts | 209 |
| Chapter 11. Reactions to San Domingo (2): Sentiment, Suicide, and Patriotism | 229 |
| Chapter 12. Women in the Provinces and Across the Irish Sea: Explosion of Agitation | 249 |
| Chapter 13. Extending Discourse and Changing Definitions | 273 |

x  CONTENTS

| | |
|------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 14. Conclusion | 299 |
| Notes | 309 |
| Selected Bibliography | 383 |
| Index | 447 |