

Contents

Preface	v
List of Contributors	xi
1 The Emigrant Family: the delineation of actual life. W. S. Ramson	1
2 Marcus Clarke: his natural life. Michael Wilding	19
3 Robbery Under Arms: a continuing success. Alan Brissenden	38
4 Geoffry Hamlyn: a study in literary survival. G. A. Wilkes	61
5 Joseph Furphy's Novels: naked capers in the Riverina. F. Devlin Glass	73
6 The Fortunes of Richard Mahony: symphony and naturalism. Ken Stewart	97
7 Her Privates We: an aesthete goes to war. J. M. Douglas Pringle	121
8 Norman Lindsay's Novels: an aspect of their ethics. Kerin M. Day	141
9 D. H. Lawrence's Kangaroo: how it looks to an Australian. A. D. Hope	157
10 The Man Who Loved Children: storm in a tea-cup. Dorothy Green	174
11 Lucinda Brayford: a form of music. W. S. Ramson	209
12 Martin Boyd's Langton Novels: praising superior people. Pamela Nase	229
13 Randolph Stow and the Tourmaline affair. A. D. Hope	249

Contents

14	The Tree of Man: an essay in scepticism. Leonie Kramer	269
15	Voss: stubborn music. Dorothy Green	284
16	The Vivisector: art and science. R. F. Brissenden	311
17	The Chant of Jimmie Blacksmith: taking cognisance of Keneally. W. S. Ramson	325