

Contents

Foreword	9
1. H. L. Mencken and the Hollins Street House	14
2. Hawthorne and the Old Manse	23
3. Carl Sandburg and the Railroad Town	32
4. Emily Dickinson and the Homestead	43
5. Hemingway and the Island in the Sun	53
6. Thomas Wolfe, the Angel, and the Boardinghouse	62
7. Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings: A Newcomer at Cross Creek	74
8. John Steinbeck: Salinas and the Long Valley	84
9. Willa Cather, the Prairie, and Red Cloud	94
10. Mark Twain: A Connecticut Yankee at Home	105
11. Emerson in Concord	116
12. Edgar Allan Poe: Empty Shrines on the Eastern Seaboard	125
13. Edith Wharton "at Home": The Mount in Lenox, Massachusetts	133

14.	William Faulkner and Rowan Oak	139
15.	Sinclair Lewis: No Castles on Main Street	145
16.	Laura Ingalls Wilder: The House at the End of the Road	152
17.	Walt Whitman and the Mickle Street House	158
18.	Sherwood Anderson's Vanishing Winesburg	165
19.	Flannery O'Connor: Redemption in Slash Pine Country	171
20.	Paul Laurence Dunbar: A Singer in Dayton	177
21.	The Riley Old Home, Greenfield, Indiana	182
22.	Eugene Field House, St. Louis	187
23.	George Washington Cable in New Orleans and Northampton	191
24.	Edgar Lee Masters and the Spoon River Country	195
25.	Ellen Glasgow in Richmond	199
26.	F. Scott Fitzgerald in St. Paul: On the Threshold of the Jazz Age	203
27.	Jack London and Wolf House	207
28.	O. Henry in Austin: Cops, Robbers, and the Rolling Stone	211
29.	Owen Wister and the Wild West	215
30.	Robinson Jeffers and Tor House	220
	Directory of Authors' Homes	225
	Notes on Sources	232