

Contents

Preface	ix
1. Introduction: Street Speech as a Social Dialect	1
2. The Birth of Black Street Speech	11
3. Street Speech and Formal Speech: Linguistic Survival in Black and White Societies	23
4. The Scholar and the Street: Collecting the Data	36
5. Specialized Lexical Marking and Alternation	54
Code Switching versus Style Shifting	58
Topic-Related Shifting	59
Syllable Contraction and Expansion	60
Variable Forestressing of Bisyllabic Words	62
Hypercorrection	64
Lexical Summary	67
6. Unique Grammatical Usage	68
Locating Suitable Examples	68
Syntactic Constructions and Their Functions	69
Grammatical Summary	89
7. Phonological Variation	91
X Suffix /-s/ Variation	94
Consonant Cluster Reduction	97
> Is and Are Variation	99
Postvocalic /r/ Variation	103
X Summary of Phonological and Morphological Variation	104
8. Educational Insights	108
9. Impediments to Employability	118
10. Dynamic Black Speech: A Nonideal Linguistic State	127
Bibliography	135
Index	143