

Contents

Foreword Alan Jabbour	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction Neil V. Rosenberg	i
Part 1: THE GREAT BOOM	27
<hr/>
When We Were Good: Class and Culture in the Folk Revival Robert Cantwell	35
The Campus Folksong Club: A Glimpse at the Past Archie Green	61
The Folksong Revival Bruce Jackson	73
Cents and Nonsense in the Urban Folksong Movement: 1930-66 Ellen J. Stekert	84
A Future Folklorist in the Record Business Kenneth S. Goldstein	107
Part 2: THE NEW AESTHETIC	123
<hr/>
On Folk Festivals and Kitchens: Questions of Authenticity in the Folksong Revival I. Sheldon Posen	127

“The Folk Process” in the Revival: “Barrett’s Privateers” and “Baratt’s Privateers” Pauline Greenhill	137
“Barrett’s Privateers”: Performance and Participation in the Folk Revival Anne Lederman	160
Part 3: NAMED-SYSTEMS REVIVALS	177
<hr/>
Musical Revival as Musical Transformation Burt Feintuch	183
Starvation, Serendipity, and the Ambivalence of Bluegrass Revivalism Neil V. Rosenberg	194
Bluegrass and the Folk Revival: Structural Similarities and Experienced Differences Philip Nusbaum	203
Reconstructing the Blues: Reflections on the 1960s Blues Revival Jeff Todd Titon	220
Living Blues Journal: The Paradoxical Aesthetics of the Blues Revival Peter Narváez	241
Rethinking Folk Revivalism: Grass-roots Preservationism and Folk Romanticism Richard Blaustein	258
The Reception of the Music of American Southern Whites in Japan Toru Mitsui	275
Bibliography	295
Discography	313
Contributors	315
General Index	319
Index of Song Titles	339