

CONTENTS

PREFACE	9
CHAPTER ONE: INTRODUCTION	11
I. Negro Fiction	11
II. The Grotesque	21
III. Procedure	34
CHAPTER TWO: JEAN TOOMER	36
I. Introduction	36
1. Publications and Criticism	36
2. Biographical Problems	36
3. Cane	38
II. Summary of Cane	39
1. Part One	39
2. Part Two	42
3. Part Three ('Kabnis')	44
III. Grotesque Figures, Objects, and Situations in Cane	46
1. Grotesque Figures	46
2. Grotesque Objects	50
3. Grotesque Situations	52
IV. Analysis of Grotesque Passages in Cane ; Images and Tropes ('Methods')	56
1. Comments	56
2. Reactions	57
3. Realistic Description	58
4. Distortion, Animation, and Alienation	59
a) Origins of Images	59
b) Elements Qualified by Images	59
c) Ways in which Images are Used	60
V. Interpretations	66
1. 'Rhobert'	66
2. 'Box Seat'	70
3. 'Kabnis'	77
VI. Origins and Meaning	88
CHAPTER THREE: RICHARD WRIGHT	91
I. Introduction	91
1. Biography	92
2. Summaries	96
a) Native Son	96

b) 'The Man Who Lived Underground'	98
c) The Outsider	98
3. Procedure	99
II. Grotesque Situations in Connection with Fictional Motifs	100
1. The Motif of the Outsider	100
2. The Personality Split	105
3. The Waste Land and the Gothic Landscape	106
4. Excessive Violence and Cruelty	114
a) Fights against Animals	114
b) Murders	115
c) Acts of Torture	117
d) Mutilations of Bodies	119
e) Conclusions	120
5. Dream Elements and Nightmares	121
a) Realistic Descriptions of Nightmares and Dreams	121
b) Comments on the Dreamlike Character of Particular Scenes ..	124
c) Situations Resembling Dreams or Nightmares	126
III. Grotesque Figures	129
1. Anonymous Groups	129
2. Minor Characters	131
3. Major Characters	133
a) Bigger Thomas	134
b) Fred Daniels	142
c) Cross Damon	144
d) Ely Houston	150
e) Jim in 'Big Black Good Man'	153
f) Babu in 'Man, God Ain't Like That'	154
IV. Grotesque Objects	155
1. The House	155
2. The Hand	156
3. The 'White Blur'	156
V. The Structural Function of the Grotesque	158
1. Native Son	158
2. 'The Man Who Lived Underground'	160
3. The Outsider	162
CHAPTER FOUR: RALPH ELLISON	165
I. Introduction	165
1. Biography	165
2. Summary of Invisible Man	167
3. General Criticism	171
4. Procedure	177
II. Grotesque Elements: A Survey	178

1. Manifestations of the Grotesque	178
a) Figures	178
b) Objects	179
c) Situations	180
2. Methods of Presentation	181
a) Comments	181
b) Reactions	183
c) Realistic Description	185
d) Figurative Language	185
3. The Principle of Selection	186
Interpretation of Invisible Man :
III. The Grotesque Point of Recollection and the Problems of Interpretation Related to It; Prologue and Epilogue	189
1. Invisibility	190
2. The Underground	196
3. The Narcotic Dream	200
IV. Chapters 1-7: A Southern Nightmare	204
1. Initiation (Battle Royal)	204
2. Transgression (Norton, Trueblood, and the Golden Day)	209
3. Punishment (Bledsoe, Barbee)	216
V. Chapters 7-12: Death and Rebirth	220
1. The Search for Work (Wheatstraw, Emerson)	220
2. Liberty Paints (Kimbrow, Brockway)	224
3. The Hospital	227
VI. Chapters 13-18: The Illusion of Brotherhood	232
1. First Contact with the Brotherhood (Jack, Leaving Mary)	233
2. Career in Harlem (Clifton, Ras)	237
3. Accusation and Suspension (Tarp, Wrestrum)	243
VII. Chapters 19-25: The Changing Faces of Chaos	244
1. The Death of Clifton (Sambo, Funeral, Tobitt, Jack's Glass Eye)	245
2. Rinehart	254
3. The Harlem Riot (Sybil; Dupre, Ras)	258
VIII. 'Out of the Hospital and Under the Bar'— The Function of a Fragment	269
CHAPTER FIVE: CONCLUSION	276
NOTES	281
BIBLIOGRAPHY	323