

Contents

Returning the Gift.....	5
I Distortions and Repressions	11
1 Images of Indians in German Children's Books	13
2 "Indians" and Native Americans in the Movies: A History of Stereotypes, Distortions, and Repression	48
3 Regional Culture, Ethnicity, and the Repression of Indian Heritage in the United States Academia.....	62
4 Cultural Appropriation as a Repression of Peoples and Histories.....	75
5 Confronting Cultural Imperialism: First Nations People Are Combating Continued Cultural Theft	83
6 Native American Studies in Europe: Between "Indianthusiasm" and Scholarship	98
II Overviews.....	107
7 Native Literatures in Canada Before Oka: An Introduction.....	109
8 "Is the Canon Colorblind?": On the Status of Authors of Color in Canadian Literature in English.....	126
9 Canadian Native Literature in the Sixties: A Survey.....	154
10 "Pounded Earth and Heartbeats": 20 th -Century Poetry by Native Women of North America (written together with Stefanie von Berg).....	172
III Themes and Individuals	193
11 The Circle as a Philosophical and Structural Concept in Native American Fiction.....	195
12 "Voices of the Mother": The Survival of First Nations Literatures and the Beginnings of Indigenous Criticism in Canada.....	209
13 Nachwort zu Jeannette Armstrongs Roman Slash	228
14 Nachwort zu Beatrice Culletons Roman Halbblut: Das Mädchen April Raintree	235
15 "Talking at the Kitchen Table": A Personal Homage to Rita Joe of Eskasoni Reserve, Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia	248
Works Cited	258