

CONTENTS

Foreword by Bertrand Russell	xiii
Introduction: The Saltmines of Salzburg or Wittgensteinianism Reconsidered in Historical Context	I
Chapter I: Of Linguistic Philosophy
Section 1 Introductory	39
2 First Approaches	41
3 A Theory of Philosophy	42
4 A Theory of the World and of Language	43
5 A Theory of Mind	45
Chapter II: Of Language
Section 1 The Theory of Language Expanded	49
2 Language Games	50
3 The Four Pillars	51
4 The Argument from Paradigm Cases	52
5 From Fact to Norm	59
6 The Contrast Theory of Meaning	62
7 General Comments on the Three Fallacies	65
8 The Cult of the Fox	66
9 Everything is Unlike Everything Else	72
10 The Best of all Possible Languages	75
Chapter III: Of Philosophy
Section 1 Activity not Doctrine	79
2 The Imperturbable Universe	81
3 Flashback	87
4 Logical Atomism	91
5 Logical Positivism	99
6 Logical Constructions	109

7	Common Sense	110
8	Transition	116
9	Appearance and Reality, or Monsieur Jourdain's Revolt	118

Chapter IV: Of the World

Section 1	The Secret of the Universe	121
2	Naturalism	125
3	A Special Kind of Naturalism	128
4	The Bait and the Trap	133
5	The Turn of the Screw	135
6	Triple Star	136
7	De Luxe	141

Chapter V: Of Knowledge

Section 1	The Circle of Knowledge	142
2	Multiplication beyond Necessity	147
3	Some Contrasts	149
4	Realism and Idealism	151
5	What One Looks Like when not Looking	152
6	"Seeing the World Rightly"	155
7	The Sages of Lagado	158
8	Not to Ask the Reason Why	161
9	The Proselytising Solipsist	165
10	The Elusive but Comforting Doctrine	166
11	The Delphic Insight	169
12	The Argument from Impotence	172
13	Conclusion	179

Chapter VI: Structure and Strategy

Diagram, Explanation and Instructions for Use	181
Section 1	The Structure of Linguistic Philosophy	183
2	The Spectrum	188
3	The Prayer-Wheel	191

Section 4	The Needle in the Haystack	192
5	Philosophy by Filibuster	192
6	The Reluctant Centipede	193
7	The Withering away of Philosophy	195
8	The Spurious Fox	195
9	Two-tier Doctrine and Invertebrate Philosophy	196
10	The Full Circle	197
11	Solvitur Ambulando	198
12	Differential Realism	200
13	The New Koran	201
14	Saladin's Fork	203
15	The Indian Rope Trick	205
16	Philosophy by Frisson	206
17	Keep them Guessing	208
18	Insinuation and Taboo	210
19	Whoever said this?	211
20	Offensive and Defensive Positions	212
21	A Sense of Decorum	213
22	Collective Security	214

Chapter VII: Assessment

Section 1	What remains?	215
2	The Circularity	217
3	Travesty of Thought	220
4	Failure of Normativeness	223
5	The Paradox of Passivity	227
6	The Dimensions of Caution	231
7	The Dimensions of Empiricism	233
8	Linguistic Philosophy as an Orientation and a Style of Thought	234
9	A Collector's Piece	235
10	Originality	237
11	The Corruption of Youth	239

Chapter VIII: Implications
Section 1 Religion	242
2 Politics	245
3 The Three Stages of Weltanschauung	247
Chapter IX: Sociology
Section 1 Philosophy and Sociology	251
2 An Ideology	253
3 Some Comparisons	256
4 The Narodniks of North Oxford	259
5 Science, Power, Ideas	261
6 Internal Organisation	264
7 Conspicuous Triviality	267
8 Philosophy as an Institution	269
9 A Secularised Established Religion	270
10 Rival Styles	273
11 Existence precedes Essence	276
Chapter X: Conclusion
	285
Index
	289