

Contents

---

Preface	ix
Introduction	xi
I. THE GENEALOGY OF PRAXIS	3
Yugoslavia: The Arrested Revolution / The “Struggle of Opinions” / The Pogledi Experience / 1955–1960: Years of Reconsolidation / 1960–1964: The Birth of an Institution of Criticism / Praxis : A Profile
II. THE CRITIQUE OF MARXISM AS IDEOLOGY	57
Philosophy and the Principle of Criticism / The Return to the Revolutionary Subject / Praxis and Alienation / From Marx to Stalin: The Reification of the Dialectic / The Transcendence of Philosophy: Philosophy as Praxis?
III. THE CRISIS OF POLITICS: POLITICAL ALIENATION AND STALINISM	110
Political Alienation and the Crisis of Politics / Stalinism and Its Legacy
IV. THE CRITIQUE OF YUGOSLAV SOCIALISM	151
The Idea of Self-Management / Self-Management Between Bureaucratism and Economism / The Economic Reforms and the Emergence of a Market Society / Nationalism and the Nationalist Mystification / Toward a Closed Society?
V. THE PRAXIS OF PRAXIS	194
A Provocation / Praxis 1964–1974: A Narrative History

VI. CONCLUSION: THE INTELLECTUAL AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY	242
The Concept of a Humanist Intelligentsia / Praxis as an Institution
Notes	273
Sources Consulted	329
Index	353