

Contents

Part One Early Environment

I Introduction: Seeing Young Browning Plain	3
II Camberwell and New Cross	9
III Family	19
IV Self-Consciousness	43
1 Domestic Life	45
2 Evangelical Religion	51
3 Nature	62
V Objectivity	74
1 Quirky Types	75
2 An Encyclopedic Outlook	85
3 Our Set	96
4 Family Cosmopolitanism	112
VI Art	131
1 The Artistic Environment	133
2 The Significance of Art	146
3 Perishable Idols	156

Part Two The Development of a Poetic Nature: First Steps

VII Precocious Beginnings	163
1 An Itch for Rhyming	165
2 Giants of Old	168
VIII A Sentimental Education: The Flowers	179
IX Sun-Treader: First Flight	193
1 Shelley Discovered: "A Spell to Me Alone"	193
2 A Poetic Conversion	200
3 Ambiguities: Pauline	208
4 Pauline : Alternatives	219
5 The Shelleyan Heritage	229

Part Three Education

X	Schooling and Society	241
1	Educational Alternatives	242
2	The Very Respectable Establishment Opposite Rye-lane	245
3	Interlude: Home Tutoring and Millennial Hopes	253
XI	The London University	263
1	Fair Girl That Comes a Withered Hag	264
2	A Practical University	278
3	Some Practical Decisions	281
XII	Rededication: Toward Humanity and the Human Past	287
XIII	A Poet's Education: Tradition as Found	295
1	Curious Knowledge	296
2	A European Culture	299
3	The Legacy of Protestant Culture	308
4	Starry Paladins: Renaissance Ideals	319
5	Excellent and Indispensable Eighteenth Century	329
XIV	A Poet's Education: Limits and Promise	335
1	Science: The Failure to Connect	336
2	History: Prelude	342
3	Education: Conclusions	346

Appendixes

A	Ancestry and Contemporary Relatives of Robert Browning (including Genealogical Charts)	355
B	Checklist of Sketchbooks, Notebooks, and Manuscripts of Robert Browning Sr.	376
C	Contributions of Robert Browning to The Trifler	379
D	Sarah Flower Adams' Marginalia in Her Copy of Pauline	383
	Abbreviations Used in Notes	389
	Notes	391
	Index	463