

Contents

	List of Illustrations	vii
	Preface	ix
1	The Father	1
2	The Son	5
3	The Friend	10
4	Jane Baillie Welsh	14
5	The Meeting	20
6	First Movement in Courtship	25
7	Second Movement	30
8	Third Movement	35
9	Hopes at Comely Bank	44
10	Despair at Craigenputtock	50
11	A Sojourn in London	53
12	The Retreat to Craigenputtock	58
13	The Decision	61
14	Cheyne Row, the Catastrophe	68
15	The Lectures to London Society	77
16	A Dazzling Prospect	81
17	Carlyle and his Contemporaries	87
18	Restlessness	94
19	Death of Mrs Welsh	97
20	Past and Present	100
21	Aspects of Life with Carlyle	106
22	The Fascination of Jane Welsh Carlyle	113
23	The Battle against Noise	121
24	Darkening of the Scene : Lady Ashburton	123
25	Domestic Help and Domestic Economy	128

26	A Pleasant Task	133
27	Carlyle as Traveller and Visitor	141
28	The Monstrous Task	146
29	Tragedy	150
30	Calamity	158
31	Sunshine	167
32	De Profundis	174
	Appendix	179
	Bibliography	183
	Index	184

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	VII
I. THE HISTORICAL BACKGROUND OF Sartor Resartus	I
1. The Kantian Compromise	7
2. Kant, Fichte, and the Dilemma of Idealism	15
II. Sartor Resartus AND THE HISTORICITY OF IDEALISM	35
1. The Style of Dogmatic Idealism	37
2. Carlyle's "British Reader" and the Structure of Sartor Resartus	50
III. CARLYLE AND HEGEL	57
List of Texts Cited	76
Index	77