

Contents

Editors' Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: An American Revolutionary Tradition	1
Michael Zakim and Gary J. Kornblith
1 The Agrarian Context of American Capitalist Development	13
Christopher Clark
2 The Mortgage Worked the Hardest
The Fate of Landed Independence in Nineteenth-Century America	39
Jonathan Levy
3 Toxic Debt, Liar Loans, Collateralized and Securitized Human Beings, and the Panic of 1837	69
Edward E. Baptist
4 Inheriting Property and Debt
From Family Security to Corporate Accumulation	93
Elizabeth Blackmar
5 Slave Breeding and Free Love
An Antebellum Argument over Slavery, Capitalism, and Personhood	119
Amy Dru Stanley
6 Capitalism and the Rise of the Corporation Nation	145
Robert E. Wright

7	Capitalist Aesthetics
	Americans Look at the London and Liverpool Docks	169
	Tamara Plakins Thornton
8	William Leggett and the Melodrama of the Market	199
	Jeffrey Sklansky
9	Producing Capitalism
	The Clerk at Work	223
	Michael Zakim
10	Soulless Monsters and Iron Horses
	The Civil War, Institutional Change, and American Capitalism	249
	Sean Patrick Adams
	Afterword: Anonymous History	277
	Jean-Christophe Agnew
	Contributors	285
	Notes	289
	Index	311