

Contents

Pete Laver: a memoir	page vii
Abbreviations	ix
Introduction	1
Romantic imagination, nature and the pastoral ideal
Thomas McFarland	5
‘The infinite I AM’: Coleridge and the Ascent of being
Jonathan Wordsworth	22
Struggling with the contingent: self-conscious imagination in Coleridge’s notebooks	53
Kristine Dugas
Coleridge’s rejection of nature and the natural man
Norman Fruman	69
The imagination of Mrs Samuel Taylor Coleridge: unknown inspiration of an unknown tongue	79
Molly Lefebure
‘As much diversity as the heart that trembles’: Coleridge’s notes on the lakeland fells	88
William Ruddick
‘Leaping and lingering’: Coleridge’s lyrical ballads
Stephen Parrish	102
‘Radical Difference’: Coleridge and Wordsworth, 1802
Lucy Newlyn	117
Imagining Wordsworth: 1797–1807–1817	129
Richard Gravil
The Otway connection	143
David V. Erdman
Imagining Robespierre	161
Nicholas Roe
Coleridge’s Dejection : imagination, joy and the power of love
J. Robert Barth, S. J.	179
Imagining naming shaping: stanza VI of Dejection: an Ode
Peter Larkin	193
Mythopoesis: the unity of Christabel
Anthony John Harding	207
The languages of Kubla Khan	218
John Beer
Notes on the contributors	263
Index	267