

Contents

---

List of illustrations	page x
Acknowledgments	xi
1 An introduction to bibliographical biography The industrial and personal history of possessiveness; press regulation; authorial fantasy	1
2 Community properties Proprietary structures in the Tudor and Stuart theater; Heywood; Shakespeare; “blocking registration”; stationers v. players	15
3 Upstart crows and other emergencies Greene; Shakespeare; revision and the market in authors’ attention; Hamlet ; Martial and Horace	50
4 Jonson, Martial, and the mechanics of plagiarism Plagiarism in antiquity; Martial; Brome; Jonson’s Epigrams ; the personality of intellectual property; “market mentality”	104
5 Scripts in the marketplace: Jonson and editorial repossession The compensation of authorship; Jonson; editorial authorship; Dekker; the Jonson folio Works ; property in intention; Daniel; Stansby	133
6 Afterword: the Second Folio	211
Index	215