

CONTENTS

Foreword	v
I. ANDREW MARVELL: LIFE AND TIMES by JOHN KENYON, G. F. Grant Professor of History, University of Hull	I
II. NATURAL MAGIC AND POPULISM IN MARVELL'S POETRY by WILLIAM EMPSON, Emeritus Professor of English, University of Sheffield	36
III. THE SHOOTING OF THE BEARS: POETRY AND POLITICS IN ANDREW MARVELL by BARBARA EVERETT, Senior Research Fellow, Somerville College, University of Oxford	62
IV. MARVELL OUR CONTEMPORARY by MURIEL BRADBROOK, lately Mistress of Girton College and Professor of English, University of Cambridge	104
Postscript. A Commemorative Address delivered in the Guildhall, Hull, on 10 February 1978, by the Lord President of the Council, the Rt. Hon. Michael Foot, M.P.	119
Index	123