

Contents

---

Illustrations	vii
Introduction	ix

PART I LITERARY MEMORY

1 Towards a Poetics of Mnemonic Strategy in Narrative Texts	3
Testimonies: recourse to mental mnemonic resources	12
Interlude: the testimony of Olaudah Equiano	25
Palimpsests: recourse to manifest mnemonic resources	35

PART II MNEMONIC FICTIONS OF THE BLACK ATLANTIC

2 Caryl Phillips, Cambridge	63
The poetics of memory: the art of montage	69
The politics of memory: empowering culture	98
3 David Dabydeen, A Harlot's Progress	117
The poetics of memory: the art of ekphrasis	127
The politics of memory: empowering the individual	155

4 Toni Morrison, Beloved	177
The poetics of memory: the art of musicalization	187
The politics of memory: empowering the collective	223
Conclusion	235
Appendix: Source Passages Adapted in Cambridge	241
Bibliography	273
Acknowledgements	291