

Approaches to Teaching Chopin's
*The Awakening

---

Edited by

Bernard Koloski

---

The Modern Language Association of America
New York 1988

CONTENTS

Preface to the Series	viii
Preface to the Volume	ix
PART ONE: MATERIALS Bernard Koloski
Paperback Editions and Anthologies	3
Further Reading for Students	9
Further Reading for Teachers
Background Studies	11
Biography	13
Critical Studies	13
Bibliography	15
Aids to Teaching	16
PART TWO: APPROACHES
Introduction	21
Women's Experience
The Awakening as a Prototype of the Novel of Awakening Susan J. Rosowski	26
The Awakening in the Context of the Experience, Culture, and Values of Southern Women Elizabeth Fox-Genovese	34
Childbirth and Motherhood in The Awakening and in "Athénaïse" Patricia Hopkins Lattin	40
The Awakening and the Woman Question Dale Marie Bauer and Andrew M. Lakritz	47
Women's Language in The Awakening E. Laurie George	53

Backgrounds
A New Biographical Approach Emily Toth	60
The Historical and Cultural Setting Nancy Walker	67
Chopin's Stories of Awakening Mary E. Papke	73
The Awakening's Relationship with American Regionalism, Romanticism, Realism, and Naturalism Peggy Skaggs	80
Course Contexts
The Awakening in a Course on Women in Literature Barbara C. Ewell	86
The Awakening in an Introductory Literature Course Ann R. Morris and Margaret M. Dunn	94
The Awakening in an American Literature Survey Course Thomas Bonner, Jr.	99
The Awakening in a Research and Composition Course Evelyn Sweet-Hurd	104
The Awakening in a Course on Philosophical Ideas in Literature Jo Ellen Jacobs	107
Patterns That Yield Meaning
Characters as Foils to Edna Barbara H. Solomon	114
Two Settings: The Islands and the City Suzanne W. Jones	120
Symbolism and Imagery in The Awakening Joyce Dyer	126
Stylistic Categories in The Awakening Nancy Rogers	132
Edna as Icarus: A Mythic Issue Lawrence Thornton	138
Edna as Psyche: The Self and the Unconscious Rosemary F. Franklin	144

A Reader-Response Approach Elizabeth Rankin	150
Participants in Survey of Awakening Instructors	156
Works Cited	157
Index	167