

Henry James's Portrait of the Writer as Hero

Sara S. Chapman
*Professor of English and President
Russell Sage College, Troy, New York*

M
MACMILLAN

Contents

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 1 | James's Writer-Hero: A Modernist Icon | 1 |
| 2 | James's Portrait of the Writer-Critic | 17 |
| 3 | The Imitation of Art in 'The Author of Beltraffio' | 27 |
| 4 | The Lesson in 'The Lesson of the Master' | 35 |
| 5 | 'Greville Fane': Portrait of a 'Lady-Novelist' | 47 |
| 6 | The Requirement of Caring: Humanism in 'The Middle Years' | 54 |
| 7 | 'The Death of the Lion': James's 'Martyr of the Artistic Ideal' | 61 |
| 8 | The 'Summarized Exhibition' of 'The Coxon Fund' | 69 |
| 9 | James's 'Brotherhood of Faith': The Artist and the Critic in 'The Next Time' | 77 |
| 10 | The Ironic Figure in 'The Figure in the Carpet' | 85 |
| 11 | The Portrait Refined: Six Miniatures | 93 |
| 12 | Integrative Experience in 'The Great Good Place' | 108 |
| 13 | Creativity in The Sacred Fount | 115 |
| | Notes and References | 131 |
| | Works Cited | 144 |
| | Index | 148 |