
Labour Resistance in Cameroon

Managerial Strategies & Labour Resistance in the Agro-Industrial Plantations of the Cameroon Development Corporation

PIET KONINGS
African Studies Centre, Leiden

*African Studies Centre
Leiden
in association with*

JAMES CURREY
LONDON

EDITIONS CLE
YAOUNDE

HEINEMANN
PORTSMOUTH (N.H.)

Contents

List of Abbreviations	vii
List of Tables, Maps & Figures	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
Major theories on plantation production	2
Labour control & labour resistance in the labour process	10
Organization of the book & research methodology	15
1
The Post-Colonial State & Agro-Industrial Expansion in Cameroon	17
Main characteristics of the agro-industrial sector in Cameroon	17
Achievements of the agro-industrial sector	26
The post-colonial state & agro-industrial expansion	28
Recent reorientation of agricultural priorities	31
Conclusion	33
2
The Cameroon Development Corporation (CDC)	35
The birth of the CDC	36
International financial institutions & the expansion & reorganization of the corporation	40
The role of the CDC in regional & national development	49
Conclusion	56
3
The CDC Labour Force	58
CDC management & control of labour supplies	58
Composition & main demographic characteristics of the CDC labour force	64
Remuneration of the CDC labour force	73
Conclusion	79

4

Managerial Strategies & Labour Resistance: Labour Control & Collective & Informal Modes of Resistance in the CDC Estates	81
Managerial strategies of labour control in the CDC estates	81
Collective & informal modes of labour resistance in the CDC estates	92
Conclusion	106

5

Trade Unionism Within the CDC: A Vehicle of Labour Resistance or an Instrument of Labour Control?	107
The role of trade unionism within the CDC during the Trusteeship period, 1947–1960/61	108
The role of trade unionism within the CDC during the period of the Federal Republic of Cameroon, 1961–1972	120
The role of trade unionism within the CDC during the period of the (United) Republic of Cameroon, 1972–1987	141
Conclusion	155

6

The CDC Smallholders Schemes: A New Strategy of Labour Control & Capital Accumulation	157
The CDC & smallholder development during the period 1946/47–1977/78	159
The CDC & smallholder development during the period 1977/78–1986/87	167
Conclusion	175

7

The CDC Workers' Resistance & Changes in the Cameroonian Political Economy	177
The CDC workers' political consciousness & action	177
The impact of trade unionism on the CDC workers' consciousness & action	181
CDC workers' resistance & plantation production	183
References	185
Index	199