

Contents

PREFACE xvii

Chapter 1 Doing American Women's History 1

ESSAYS 1

Estelle B. Freedman • A Personal History of Women's History 2

Vicki L. Ruiz and Leisa D. Meyer • "Ongoing Missionary Labor":
A Conversation on Chicana Studies/History 8

Mia Bay • Black Women Historians and Black Women's History 12

Sharon Block • Taking Over or Just Undertaking? A Quantitative
Overview of American Women's History 18

FURTHER READING 22

Chapter 2 European-Native American Cultural Contact 24

DOCUMENTS 24

1. The French Explorer Samuel de Champlain Describes the Lives of Huron Women and Men in the Great Lakes Region, 1616 25

2. Father Gerónimo Boscana Describes San Juan Capistrano Indian
Women's Lives, 1832 26

3. Mary Musgrove Seeks Aid from Georgia in Return for Past
Service and Losses, 1747 29

4. Elizabeth Hanson Describes Aspects of Her Captivity by Native
Americans in 1724 32

ESSAYS 35

Nancy Shoemaker • Kateri Tekakwitha: Native American Women and Christianity 36

Michele Gillespie • Mary Musgrove and the Sexual Politics of Race and Gender in Georgia 42

Ann Little • Indian Captivity and Family Life in Colonial New England 49

FURTHER READING 57*Chapter 3 Economic Roles in Early America 58*DOCUMENTS 58

1. Apprenticeships of Euro-American, Native American, and African American Women, New York, circa 1700 59

2. Elizabeth Sandwith Drinker, a Wealthy Philadelphian, Describes Her Work, 1758–1780 61

3. Chart of Huron Indians' Seasonal and Gendered Labor Cycle 62

4. Mary Prince Describes Her Work as an Enslaved Salt Raker 62

5. Eulalia Pérez Recalls Her Work in a Mission in Spanish California in the Early Nineteenth Century 64

ESSAYS 66

Karin Hulf • Women's Work in Colonial Philadelphia 66

Judith Carney • African Women's Influence on Rice Cultivation 73

Virginia Marie Bouvier • Women's Work in California's Spanish Missions 76

FURTHER READING 81*Chapter 4 Marriage, Sexuality, and Family in Colonial America 82*DOCUMENTS 83

1. Henry Laurens Buys Clothes and a "Wife" for His Slaves, 1764 84

2. Virginia Statute on Intermarriage and Bastardy, 1705 84

3. Testimony of Hannah Gother, Servant, on Becoming Pregnant With Her Master's Child, Pennsylvania, 1734 85

4. Testimony of Phillis, African American Servant, on Becoming Pregnant With Her Master's Child, Pennsylvania, 1780 86

5. Child Custody Petition by Antonia Lusgardia Hernández, Mulatto Woman, New Spain, 1735 86

6. Bawdy Humor on Marriage 88
7. A French Explorer Describes Native American–European Relations, 1713 89

ESSAYS 89

Cornelia Hughes Dayton • Abortion and Gender Relations in Eighteenth-Century New England 90

Kathleen DuVal • Indians' Marital and Intercultural Relationships in Colonial Louisiana 98

FURTHER READING 108

Chapter 5 Personal and Public Politics in an Age of Revolution 110

DOCUMENTS 110

1. Wife of Virginia Political Candidate Helps Provide Food and Liquor to Voters, 1752 111
2. Providence Women Burn Tea, 1775 112
3. Abigail Adams, John Adams, and Mercy Otis Warren Discuss "Remembering the Ladies," 1776 113
4. Seneca Women and Chief Red Jacket Speak Women's Words to U.S. Delegation, 1791 115
5. Mary Phillips Describes Being Raped by a British Soldier for Her Assumed Patriot Allegiances 116
6. Soldiers' Rape of Indian Women Contributes to Political Conflict, 1766 117
7. Petition of Belinda, an African Slave, to the Massachusetts Legislature for Reparations for Slavery, 1787 117

ESSAYS 118

John G. Kolp and Terri L. Snyder • Women, Property, and Voting Rights in Eighteenth-Century Virginia 119

Jacqueline Jones • The Mixed Legacy of the American Revolution for Black Women 126

FURTHER READING 130

Chapter 6 Sexuality, Rights, and Activism in a New Nation 132

DOCUMENTS 133

1. Keep Within the Compass: Illustrated Guide to Women's Virtue 134
2. A Diarist Relates a Gentleman's Seduction of a 14-Year-Old Girl to His Wife's Novel Reading, Philadelphia, 1806 135

3. Summary of the Petition of Doña Eulalia Callis and Related Documents Regarding Her Husband's Infidelity, California, 1780s 135
4. The American Female Moral Reform Society Warns Mothers About the "Solitary Vice," 1839 137
5. The Anti-Slavery Convention of American Women Meets in New York City, May 1837 138
6. The Seneca Falls Convention Issues a "Declaration of Sentiments," 1848 141

ESSAYS 143

Karen V. Hansen • An Erotic Friendship Between Two African American Women 144

Julie Roy Jeffrey • Ordinary Women in the Antislavery Movement 153

FURTHER READING 159

Chapter 7 Antebellum Race and Slavery 160

DOCUMENTS 160

1. Newspaper Advertisements for Runaway Enslaved Women, North Carolina 161
2. Elizabeth Recalls Life as a Slave and the Comfort of Christianity 162
3. Harriet Jacobs Recounts Sexual Dangers for Enslaved Girls and Women 164
4. Nancy, a Free Woman of Color, Sues for Freedom Based on Native American Heritage 166
5. Debate on Massachusetts Intermarriage Law, 1840 169

ESSAYS 171

Stephanie M. H. Camp • Enslaved Women, Truancy, and Everyday Resistance in the Plantation South 172

Tiya Miles • The Narrative of Nancy, a Cherokee Woman 180

Martha Hodes • Eunice Connolly: A Transnational Family Story of Race and Womanhood 188

FURTHER READING 199

Chapter 8 The Civil War and Its Aftermath 201

DOCUMENTS 202

1. The Louisianian Sarah Morgan Proudly Proclaims Herself a Rebel, 1863 202
2. A Union Nurse, Cornelia Hancock, Describes the Aftermath of the Battle of Gettysburg, 1863 203

3. Ella Gertrude Clanton Thomas Describes Conditions in the Confederacy and Criticizes Northern Women, 1865 205
4. A Petition for Universal Suffrage, 1866 206
5. Caroline Benson Testifies About Abuse by the Ku Klux Klan Before a Joint Congressional Committee, 1871 206
6. Ida B. Wells-Barnett Shares a Letter From Frederick Douglass and Denounces Lynching in the South, 1895 209
7. Harriet Tubman Petitions Congress, Requesting Payment for Services Rendered During the War, circa 1898 213

ESSAYS 213

Nina Silber • Domesticity Under Siege in Union States 214

Hannah Rosen • How Southern Black Women During Reconstruction Claimed Citizenship by Testifying to Violence 223

FURTHER READING 230*Chapter 9 The Trans-Mississippi Frontier West 232*DOCUMENTS 233

1. A Citizen Protests the Rape of Indian Women in California, 1862 233
2. Letter from Mariana Day to Congress Requesting a Resolution to a Disputed Land Claim, 1870 234
3. Bills of Sale of Chinese Prostitutes, 1875–1876 235
4. Zitkala-Ša Travels to the Land of the Big Red Apples, 1884 236
5. Mrs. A. M. Green Gives an Account of Frontier Life in Colorado, 1887 239
6. Violet Cragg, Ex-Slave and Former Army Nurse, Requests an Army Pension, 1908 241
7. Three Accounts of Marriages Between White Women and Indian Men, the New York Times, 1885–1891 243

ESSAYS 246

Judy Yung • Chinese Women in Nineteenth-Century San Francisco 246

Cathleen D. Cahill • Native Men, White Women, and Marriage in the Indian Service 254

FURTHER READING 264

Chapter 10 Paid Employment, Workplace Rights, and Modern Consumerism, 1880–1930 266

DOCUMENTS 267

1. Rose Cohen Describes Her First Job in New York City, 1892 267
2. Susan Lord Currier Comments on the Indians Who Work in Washington's Hop Fields, 1898 269
3. Fannie Barrier Williams Describes the "Problem of Employment for Negro Women," 1903 270
4. The U.S. Supreme Court Upholds a Maximum-Hours Law for Working Women in Muller v. Oregon, 1908 273
5. The New York Times Reports on the Tragedy of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire, 1911 276
6. The Survey Reports on a Protest of Unemployed Women in New York City, 1914 279
- 7a. Portraits of Beauty-Industry Entrepreneurs Madam C. J. Walker and Her Daughter A'Levia Walker, undated 281
- 7b. A Walker Beauty Parlor for African American Women: Beauty Operators with Clients in New York City, 1915 281
- 7c. The Elegant Waiting Room of a Walker Beauty Parlor for African American Women in New York City, 1915 282

ESSAYS 282

- Paige Raibmon* • Everyday Colonialism: Indigenous Women at Work in the Hop Fields and Tourist Industry of Puget Sound 283
- Kate Dossett* • Black Women and Work: A'Levia Walker and the Madam C. J. Walker Manufacturing Company 294

FURTHER READING 305

Chapter 11 Activism and Political Differences, 1890–1930 308

DOCUMENTS 309

1. Mary Church Terrell Praises the Club Work of Colored Women, 1901 309
2. Mary Church Terrell Describes Lynching From a Negro's Point of View, 1904 311
3. The National American Woman Suffrage Association Explains Why Women in the Home Need the Vote, 1910 313
4. The Southeastern Federation of Colored Women's Clubs Enlists the Cooperation of Southern White Women, 1921 314

5. Elsie Hill and Florence Kelley Take Opposing Positions on a Proposed Woman's Equal Rights Bill, 1922 316
6. White Women in Louisiana Explain Their Aims in Joining an Organization Similar to the Ku Klux Klan, 1923 318
7. Margaret Sanger Publishes Letters Documenting American Wives' and Husbands' Urgent Need for Legal Birth Control, 1928 319

ESSAYS 321

- Deborah Gray White* • Black Women and Nation-Making 321
Kathleen M. Blee • Women in the 1920s' Ku Klux Klan 331

FURTHER READING 341

Chapter 12 Hardship, Relief, and Citizenship in the Great Depression and New Deal 344

DOCUMENTS 345

1. The New York Times Reports, "Destitute Women on Increase Here," 1932 345
2. Ann Marie Low Records Her Feelings About Life in the Dust Bowl, 1934 346
3. Dorothy Dunbar Bromley Comments on Birth Control and the Depression, 1934 348
4. White and Black Women in North Carolina Find Work With New Deal Agencies Making Rugs and Mattresses, 1934 352
5. The New York Times Reports on "Indignant" Women Who "Seize" City Hall in Pleasantville, New Jersey, 1936 353
6. Eleanor Roosevelt Applauds the Repeal of the Married Persons Clause of the Economy Act, 1937 354
7. Louise Mitchell Denounces the "Slave Markets" Where Domestic Workers Are Hired in New York City, 1940 355
8. Luisa Moreno Calls for the Naturalization of Non-Citizen Mexican Americans, 1940 356

ESSAYS 358

- Andrea Tone* • Women, Birth Control, and the Marketplace in the 1930s 359
Elna C. Green • The Tampa Sewing-Room Strike of 1937 and the Right to Welfare 368

FURTHER READING 381

Chapter 13 Gender, Race, and Sexuality During World War II 383

DOCUMENTS 384

1. Hortense Johnson Describes Black Women and the War Effort, 1943 385
2. Mrs. Norma Yerger Queen Reports on the Problems of Employed Mothers in Utah, 1944 386
3. The Challenges of Maintaining the Health, Discipline, and Morale of the Women's Army Corps in North Africa and the Mediterranean During World War II 388
4. Yoshiko Uchida, Desert Exile: The Uprooting of a Japanese American Family 390
5. Frances Esquibel Tywoniak Recalls Her Early Adolescence in California During World War II 398

ESSAYS 402

- Megan Taylor Shockley* • African American Women, Citizenship, and Workplace Democracy During World War II 402
- Valerie Matsumoto* • Japanese American Women During World War II 410
- Elizabeth R. Escobedo* • Mexican American Young Women and the "Pachuca Panic" in World War II Los Angeles 423

FURTHER READING 433

Chapter 14 The Feminine Ideal and Its Challengers in Postwar America 435

DOCUMENTS 435

1. Psychiatrist Marynia F. Farnham and Sociologist Ferdinand Lundberg Denounce the Modern Woman as "The Lost Sex," 1947 436
2. African American Pauli Murray Explains "Why Negro Girls Stay Single," 1947 439
3. Joyce Johnson Recounts Her Experience in Obtaining an Illegal Abortion in New York City, 1955 442
4. Jesusita Aragon Recalls Life as a Single Mother, Midwife, and Factory Worker in New Mexico, 1950s 445
5. A Letter to the Editor of The Ladder from an African American Lesbian, 1957 447

ESSAYS 448

- Joanne Meyerowitz* • Competing Images of Women in Postwar Mass Culture 449

Yvonne Keller • Lesbian Pulp Novels and U.S. Lesbian Identity, 1950–1965 458

FURTHER READING 467

Chapter 15 Resurgent Activism, 1960 to 1990 469

DOCUMENTS 470

1. Ella Baker Describes the Goals of the Sit-In Movement, 1960 471
2. Rachel Carson Answers Her Critics, 1963 472
3. Betty Friedan Reveals the “Problem That Has No Name,” 1963 476
4. Radicalesbians Explore the Revolutionary Potential of Women-Identified Women, 1970 479
5. Frances Beale, “Double Jeopardy: To Be Black and Female,” 1970 481
6. Mirta Vidal Reports on the Rising Consciousness of the Chicana About Her Special Oppression, 1971 484
7. Johnnie Tillmon Declares That Welfare Is a Women’s Issue, 1972 486
8. The Equal Rights Amendment, 1972 488
9. Phyllis Schlafly Declares, “Women’s Libbers Do Not Speak for Us,” 1972 488
10. The Supreme Court Legalizes Abortion in Roe v. Wade, 1973 489

ESSAYS 493

Leslie J. Reagan • Crossing the Border for Abortions in the 1960s 493

Anne M. Falk • Black Women, Motherhood, and Welfare Rights in Washington, D.C. 503

FURTHER READING 512

Chapter 16 Gender, Identity, and Cultural Conflict Since 1990 515

DOCUMENTS 516

1. Anita Hill’s Testimony Before the Senate Judiciary Committee, 1991 517
2. Rebecca Walker Describes the Start of Third-Wave Feminism, 1992 520
3. The Supreme Court Rules on Abortion Rights and State Regulation in Planned Parenthood v. Casey, 1992 523

4. The Supreme Court Upholds a Federal Ban on Partial Birth Abortions in Gonzales v. Carhart, 2007 526
5. Native Women Seek Federal Aid to Combat Sexual Violence, 2009 536
6. The Southern Poverty Law Center Reports on the Workplace Exploitation of Undocumented Immigrant Women, 2010 537
7. Researchers for the Guttmacher Institute Present Findings on Religious Affiliation and the Use of Contraception, 2011 540
8. Seattle University Law Professor, Julie Shapiro, Says Parenting Helped Put Gay Men and Lesbians on the Path to Legal Marriage, 2012 542
9. The Service Women's Action Network Describes Its Work for Women in the Military, 2012 543

ESSAYS 546

R. Claire Snyder • What Is Third-Wave Feminism? 546

Brenda E. Stevenson • Multicultural Female Violence and Justice on the Urban Frontier 554

FURTHER READING 571