

C·O·N·T·E·N·T·S

INTRODUCTION	vii
Michael Hays and Anastasia Nikolopoulou

PART I: GRAND NARRATIVE(S): VARIATIONS ON A THEME

1. Soldiers of the Queen: Drury Lane Imperialism	3
Michael Booth
2. The Empire Right or Wrong: Boer War Melodrama on the Australian Stage, 1899-1901	21
Jim Davis
3. From Melodrama to Realism: The Suspect History of American Drama ...	39
Thomas Postlewait
4. Melodramatic Contingencies: Tendencies in the Bulgarian Drama and Theatre of the Late Nineteenth Century	61
Kornelia Tancheva

PART II: GENERIC PATTERNS AND SOCIAL CONSTRUCTS

5. On the Origins of the English Melodrama in the Tradition of Bourgeois Tragedy and Sentimental Drama: Lillo, Schröder, Kotzebue, Sheridan, Thompson, Jerrold	83
Lothar Fietz
6. The Return of Martin Guerre in an Early Nineteenth Century French Melodrama	103
Barbara T. Cooper
7. Historical Disruptions: The Walter Scott Melodramas	121
Anastasia Nikolopoulou

PART III: RADICALISM CONTAINED

8. He Never Should Bow Down to a Domineering Frown: Class Tensions and Nautical Melodrama	147
Marvin Carlson
9. The Ideological Tack of Nautical Melodrama	167
Jeffrey N. Cox
10. Radicalism in the Melodrama of the Early Nineteenth Century	191
Hartmut Ilseman

PART IV: GENDER, CLASS, CULTURE

11. Parlour and Platform Melodrama	211
David Mayer
12. What the Heroine Taught, 1830–1870	235
Léon Metayer
13. Representing a “Great Distress”: Melodrama, Gender, and the Irish Famine	245
Julia Williams and Stephen Watt
Appendix: “The Uncle.” Poem by H.G. Bell as recited by Sir Henry Irving with musical accompaniments composed expressly by Sir Julius Benedict	267
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	277
INDEX	281