
Europe after Derrida

Crisis and Potentiality

Edited by
Agnes Czajka and Bora Isyar

EDINBURGH
University Press

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Notes on the Contributors	ix
Introduction: What Will Become of Europe? Agnes Czajka and Bora Isyar	1
1. Mind the 'Cap' Samuel Weber	9
2. Derrida's Europe: 'Greek, Christian and Beyond' Simon Glendinning	30
3. A Roman Europe of Hope: Reading Derrida with Brague Bora Isyar	49
4. Other Shores: Insularity, Materiality and the Making (and Unmaking) of 'Europe' Stuart McLean	61
5. Europe's Constitution for the Unborn Matthias Fritsch	80
6. The Borders of Contemporary Europe: Territory, Justice and Rights Tracey Skillington	95
7. We, the Non-Europeans: Derrida with Said Engin F. Isin	108
8. Of Europe: Zionism and the Jewish Other Sherene Seikaly and Max Ajl	120
9. The European Ideal in the Face of the Muslim Other Zeynep Direk	134
10. Christianity, Secularism and the Crisis of Europe Ian Anthony Morrison	149
Index	163