

CONTENTS

Part I	An Orientation	1
1	Introduction and Overview	3
2	Simplifying Assumptions, Definitions, and a Problem-Solving Taxonomy	12
Part II	Problem Solving in Experimental Psychology	27
3	Cognitive and Gestalt Views of Problem Solving: The Aware, Purposive Organism	29
4	Problem Solving to the S-R Psychologist: Transfer and Trial-and-Error	40
5	Computer Problem-Solving Models: A Tool to Match the Task	60
Part III	The Focus on Training: Industry and Education	75
6	Inquiry Activity: Study of the Compleat Problem-Solving Experience	79
7	Brainstorming	90

8	Strategies for Stimulating Solutions: Attribute Listing, Morphological Synthesis, and Idea Checklists	103
9	Metaphorical Thinking and Problem Solving: Synectics and Bionics	120
10	Imaginative Problem Solving in the Classroom: The Wisconsin Project	133
11	More Imagination and Problem Solving in the Classroom	150
Part IV	Summary	159
12	Review and Comment	161
Appendix A	Tests and Measures of Creativity	165
Appendix B	Laboratory Problem-Solving Tasks	174
	References	181
	Index	199