

Landscape, Seascape, and the Eco-Spatial Imagination

Edited by Simon C. Estok, I-Chun Wang, and Jonathan White

Contents

List of Figures	ix
1 Introduction JONATHAN WHITE	1
2 The Geography of Otherness: The Art of Moving and the Space of Time JONATHAN LOCKE HART	22
3 The World as a Garden Landscape and Spatial Imagination in Ancient Egypt CHLOÉ C.D. RAGAZZOLI	41
4 One Island, Two Founding Myths: When Albion Turns into Britain SOPHIA YASHIH LIU	53
5 Imperial Landscape of the Mughal Empire in Early Seventeenth-Century Geographical and Travel Writings I-CHUN WANG	66
6 The Sublime as the Beautiful: Dis-placements in Edward Lear's Landscapes and Limericks MOU-LAN WONG	82
7 Some Like It Hot: Sato Haruo's Travels in the Colony PING-HUI LIAO	103
8 The Work of Mourning: W. G. Sebald's The Rings of Saturn YU-CHENG LEE	116
9 The Geography of Postmodern Meta-Utopian Spaces: "Last Call for a Revolution?" MARY E. THEIS	125

10	The Hermitage as a Converging Space Between Nature and Civilization LING CHUNG	148
11	The Changing Ethnic Landscape of Norwegian Theater BARON KELLY	165
12	Re-Visioning Pacific Seascapes: Performing Insular Identities in Robert Sullivan's Star Waka and Syaman Rapongan's Eyes of the Sky HSINYA HUANG	179
13	Place, Landscape, and Self in Gao Xingjian's Soul Mountain KRISHNA BARUA AND ANURAG BHATTACHARYYA	197
14	Afterword—Tripping on the Edge of Everything: Landscape and Ecocriticism SIMON C. ESTOK	209
	Contributors	223
	Index	229