

Contents

Preface	vii
List of Abbreviations	xi
Introduction: Biography of a Bibliography: Three Decades of Feminist Response to Rawls Ruth Abbey	1
1 Radical Liberals, Reasonable Feminists: Reason, Power, and Objectivity in MacKinnon and Rawls Anthony Simon Laden	24
2 Feminism, Method, and Rawlsian Abstraction Lisa H. Schwartzman	40
3 Rereading Rawls on Self-Respect: Feminism, Family Law, and the Social Bases of Self-Respect Elizabeth Brake	57
4 “The Family as a Basic Institution”: A Feminist Analysis of the Basic Structure as Subject Clare Chambers	75
5 Rawls, Freedom, and Disability: A Feminist Rereading Nancy J. Hirschmann	96
6 Rawls on International Justice Eileen Hunt Botting	115
7 Jean Hampton’s Reworking of Rawls: Is “Feminist Contractarianism” Useful for Feminism? Janice Richardson	133

vi Contents

8	Liberal Feminism: Comprehensive and Political Amy R. Baehr	150
	References	167
	List of Contributors	177
	Index	179