

Contents

Introduction ix

PART I Philosophical Discourses

- 1 The Meaning of History: Wilhelm von Humboldt and Immanuel Kant 3
- 2 Hume and Kant: The Nature of the Historical Object 19
- 3 Leopold von Ranke: Unknown Follower of Kant 37
- 4 Herder and Kant: Nature or Freedom 55
- 5 Hermann Cohen and Kant: A Philosophy of History from Jewish Sources 75
- 6 Eric Weil: History as the Reality of Reason 91

PART II Theological Discourses

- 7 The Philosopher and the Theologian: The Friendship of Raymond Aron and Gaston Fessard 113
- 8 The Dialectical Forms of Human History 131
- 9 Gaston Fessard and the Problem of Historical Actuality 153
- 10 Gaston Fessard's Interpretation of Israel in Human and Sacred History 175
- 11 Discourses of Faith: Gaston Fessard, Franz Rosenzweig,
Hermann Cohen 197
- 12 Shame, Repentance, Ressentiment: The Foundations of Morality 217

Notes 237