

BALKAN NATIONALISM(S) AND THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE

Dimitris Stamatopoulos (Editor)

Vol I: National Movements and Representations

THE ISIS PRESS
ISTANBUL

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|   |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |     |
|---|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
|   | Introduction                                                                                                                                                                                   |     |
|   | Dimitris Stamatopoulos .....                                                                                                                                                                          | 7   |
| 1 | Is There a Southeast European Type of Nation-Formation?                                                                                                                                        |     |
|   | Miroslav Hroch, University of Prague .....                                                                                                                                                     | 13  |
| 2 | The Orthodox Christian Community in Ottoman Ohrid in the Pre-National Period (Late 18th-Early 19th Century)                                                                                    |     |
|   | Raymond Detrez, University of Ghent .....                                                                                                                                                      | 29  |
| 3 | The 19th Century Balkan Bourgeoisie: Praised and Villified (Some Historiographical Approaches)                                                                                                 |     |
|   | Evguenia Davidova, Portland State University .....                                                                                                                                             | 47  |
| 4 | Ottomans, Habsburgs, Romanovs, and French Revolutionaries: Whom Were the Phanariots Loyal To?                                                                                                  |     |
|   | Charalampos Minaoglou, University of Athens .....                                                                                                                                              | 63  |
| 5 | Negotiating Political Identity: The Ottoman Greeks in 19th-Century Danubian Principalities                                                                                                     |     |
|   | Ștefan Petrescu, University of Bucharest .....                                                                                                                                                 | 75  |
| 6 | The Rise of Greek Nationalism and the Greek-Speaking Muslims (Vallaades) in Western Macedonia                                                                                           |     |
|   | Athanasia-Marina Tsetlaka, University of Macedonia .....                                                                                                                                       | 89  |
| 7 | Between Middle Classes and Grand Bourgeoisie: Hegemony and Nationalism in the Greek Orthodox Community of Thessaloniki from the Bulgarian Schism (1872) to the Slaughter of the Consuls (1876) |     |
|   | Dimitris Stamatopoulos, University of Macedonia .....                                                                                                                                          | 101 |
| 8 | Ottoman Past, National Discourses on Muslim Populations and Their Architectural Legacy in Arta and Thessaly                                                                                    |     |
|   | Nicole Immig, Justus-Liebig-Universität Gießen/Friedrich-Schiller Universität Jena .....                                                                                                       | 143 |
| 9 | In Search of a New Balance: The Symbiosis Between Christian and Muslim Inhabitants of the Greek State, 1912-1923                                                                               |     |
|   | Ioannis Glavinas, General Archives of the Greek State .....                                                                                                                                    | 159 |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |     |
|----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 10 | Renaming the Balkan Map: The Change of Toponyms in Greek Macedonia (1909-1928)Eleni Kyramargiou, University of the Aegean .....                                                                                  | 179 |
| 11 | Ion Dragoumis and Proto-Fascism: An Answer to Failed Irredentism and Stillborn ModernizationJohn Mazis, Hamline University .....                                                                                 | 191 |
| 12 | A Versatile Text for the Propagation of Nationalism: Under the Yoke (Pod Igoto) by Ivan VazovÜmit Eser, SOAS, University of London .....                                                                  | 207 |
| 13 | Troublesome Self-Representations: The Albanian Ottoman Past in Gjergj Fishta's Lahuta e Malcis (The Highland Lute)Francesco La Rocca, University of Budapest .....                                        | 223 |
| 14 | 'Intra-Balkanisms': The Discourse of the 'Other' Among the Balkan Peoples. Aspects of the Greek Discourse Towards the Albanians in the Late 19th CenturyElias G. Skoulidas, Epirus Institute of Technology ..... | 240 |
| 15 | The Balkan Imagination of Balkan-Origin Intellectuals: From Ottomanism to NationalismAytül Tamer Torun, Gazi University, Ankara .....                                                                            | 251 |