

Contents

List of figures and tables	x
Acknowledgements	xii
List of abbreviations	xv
Introduction	1
What is Modern Yoga?	1
Modern Yoga scholarship	6
Some notes on terminology	7
Esoteric myopia	9
Description of contents	12

PART I: THE PREHISTORY OF MODERN YOGA

1. Roots of Modern Yoga	19
“Esotericism” as academic field of research	19
The worldview of Western esotericism	21
(1 to 6): Basic characteristics of esotericism	21
(1) Correspondences	21
(2) Living nature	22
(3) Imagination and mediations	22
(4) Experience of transmutation	23
(5) The praxis of concordance	23
(6) Transmission	23
(7) Reformation “Spiritualism”	24
(8) Enlightenment and post-Enlightenment thought	25
Esotericism in classical and modern Hinduism	27

A HISTORY OF MODERN YOGA

Mysticism, cult and sect	31
From mysticism to cultic milieu	34
New Age religion vs. New Age movement	35
Classical Hinduism vs. modern Hindu elaborations	36
The beginnings of Neo-Hinduism	38
Esoteric East–West cross-influences in historical perspective	40
The Brahmo Samaj and the occultization of Neo-Vedānta	45
 2. The religious foundations of Modern Yoga	 51
The turning point between classical Hinduism and Neo-Vedānta: Rammohan Roy's Neo-Vedāntic Enlightenment	52
Neo-Vedāntic Enlightenment to Neo-Vedāntic Romanticism	56
Tagore's intellectual background	57
Tagore's doctrinal and ritual innovations	58
Intuitionist epistemology	59
Evolutionary spirituality	59
"Scientific religion"	62
Initiation	64
From Neo-Vedāntic Romanticism to Neo-Vedāntic "spiritualism"	67
The Eastern outreaches of Western esotericism	68
India responds as 'esoteric Other'	71
Sen as charismatic Neo-Vedāntic leader	74
Sen's religious career	77
The influence of American Transcendentalism	80
Sen's proto Modern Yoga	83
 3. Vivekananda and the emergence of Neo-Vedāntic occultism	 91
Vivekananda: spiritual hero or esoteric seeker?	92
Vivekananda's esoteric biography I: India	93
Childhood	93
Schooling	94
Brahmo	97
Freemason	100
Ramakrishna and Vivekananda	100
Ramakrishna's spiritual transmission	104
After Ramakrishna	108

Vivekananda's esoteric biography II: the West	110
Vivekananda at the Parliament of Religions	110
Vivekananda's assimilation of Western occultism	112
Harmonial Religion: Metaphysical beliefs and mesmerism	114
The demand for "occult" practices at the end of the nineteenth century	116
Vivekananda's 'turn West'	119
Vivekananda's '4 yogas' model	123
 4. "God-realization" and "Self-realization" in Neo-Vedānta	 127
Pervasiveness of Vivekananda's Neo-Vedāntic influences	127
Centrality of the "realization" theme	128
Ultimate aims: Vedāntic and Neo-Vedāntic	129
Classical interpretations of ātma - and brahmajñāna	130
Early attempts at translation and contextualization:
Rammohan Roy	133
Subsequent attempts at translation and contextualization by Brahmo leaders and others	135
Ramakrishna and his interpreters: the elaboration of a sampradāya	140

PART II: MODERN YOGA THEORY AND PRACTICE

5. Vivekananda's Rāja Yoga (1896): Modern Yoga formulated	149
Rāja Yoga : style, structure and overall contents	149
An emanationist cosmology	153
Three guṇas vs. two evolutes	155
Vivekananda's Naturphilosophie	156
The Prāṇa Model	159
Prāṇa as vitalistic element	160
Prāṇa as healing agent	163
Prāṇāyāma as healing technique	165
Samādhi as psychological "superconsciousness"	168
The Samādhi Model	168
The influence of Metaphysical beliefs	169
The influence of Functionalist psychology	171

A HISTORY OF MODERN YOGA

Psychological proprioception as practice	173
The Neo-Advaitic component	175
Yogic experience in classical Vedānta	176
The Yoga Sūtras : a rājayoga textbook?	178
 6. Twentieth-century developments of Modern Yoga	 181
Alternative medicine and New Age religiosity	183
New Age healing...	184
...and personal growth	185
Towards a typology of Modern Yoga	187
The development of Modern Postural Yoga: 1950s to date	190
Popularization: 1950s to mid-1970s	191
Consolidation: mid-1970s to late 1980s	192
Acculturation: late 1980s to date	193
The Iyengar School of Modern Postural Yoga	194
B. K. S. Iyengar: his life and work	195
Popularization	198
Consolidation	200
Acculturation	205
 7. Theory and practice of Iyengar Yoga	 208
Iyengar's Modern Yoga trilogy	208
Light on Yoga (1966): the Popularization period	210
MPY practice as psychosomatic self-help	211
MPY theory in Light on Yoga	218
Two specific aspects of Modern Yoga theory	219
Neo-Vedāntic ethics	220
The concept of 'self-improvement'	221
"Self-realization": a chameleonic concept	223
Light on Prāṇāyāma (1981): the Consolidation period	224
Fully-fledged Neo- Haṭhayoga	225
MPY theory and practice in Light on Prāṇāyāma : the consolidation of the Prāṇa Model	230
Light on the Yoga Sūtras of Patañjali (1993): the Acculturation period	236
The Samādhi Model in Iyengar's Neo- Haṭhayoga	236
The Neo-Viśiṣṭādvaita synthesis	243

8. Conclusion: Modern Postural Yoga as healing ritual of secular religion	248
MPY in everyday life	248
The MPY practice session	251
MPY as healing ritual of secular religion	252
(i) The separation phase (introductory quietening time in MPY)	252
(ii) The transition phase (MPY practice proper)	254
(iii) The incorporation phase (final relaxation in MPY)	257
Bibliography	261
Index	275