

Contents

The author and series editor			1
Foreword			3
Introduction			5
How to use this book			13
<hr/>
1 Working creatively with newspapers
Newspapers in coursebooks			19
Newspapers and English for Specific Purposes			19
Newspaper materials resource books			20
Working with newspapers			23
Imaginative newspaper work			24
Material requirements and conditions for creative work			26
<hr/>
2 Building confidence and familiarity
Activity	Level	Topic
2.1 When I hit the headlines	Lower-intermediate and above	Relating newspapers to personal experience	30
2.2 The letter I never wrote (until now)	Upper-intermediate and above	How a reader can contribute to a newspaper	30
2.3 What's in a newspaper	Intermediate and above	Identifying newspaper text types	31
2.4 New names	Upper-elementary and above	People in the news	32
2.5 Names in the news	Intermediate and above	People in the news	32
2.6 Understanding what we don't understand	Intermediate and above	The challenge of difficult newspaper materials	33
2.7 Hide and seek	Intermediate and above	Finding one's way around a newspaper	34
2.8 Where to find it	Intermediate and above	Page and whole newspaper layout	35
2.9 Where to put it	Upper-intermediate and above	Locating different article types	36
2.10 Front pages	Intermediate and above (business)	Personal implications of the news	37

2.11	Reading for leisure/ reading for work	Intermediate and above (business)	Reading for real-life relevant information	37
2.12	Questions and advice	Intermediate and above	Relating to people in newspaper stories	38
2.13	Things I want to know	Intermediate and above	What is included in and omitted from stories	39
2.14	Probing human interest stories	Upper-intermediate and above	Why people find themselves in the newspapers	40
2.15	Which story next?	Intermediate and above	Connecting newspaper stories	41
2.16	Categorizing stories	Intermediate and above	Responding to newspaper stories on an emotional level	42
2.17	Picture into story	Elementary and above	Matching picture and story	42
2.18	Culture and newspapers	Intermediate and above	Culture and language in newspapers	43
2.19	News stories in two cultures	Intermediate and above	English and mother-tongue treatments of the same topic	44
2.20	I expected to find ... and I was surprised	Intermediate and above	Comparing newspaper and TV news presentations	45
2.21	Headline and story	Intermediate and above	How headline and story complement each other	46
2.22	Newsvendors' posters	Elementary and above	Newsvendors' posters and newspapers	46
2.23	Three pairing techniques	All levels	Thinking about newspaper reading habits	48
2.24	Story chains	Intermediate and above	Making connections between newspaper stories	49
2.25	The panel	Intermediate and above	How to follow up reading with discussion	50
2.26	Matching comment and newspaper	Intermediate and above	Making judgements about newspapers	51
2.27	The stories I would like to read	Upper-intermediate and above	Deciding which stories to read and which to skip	52
2.28	Reviews	Upper-elementary and above	Assessing the type and quality of a newspaper	52
2.29	Buying newspapers	Upper-elementary and above	Getting the students to buy a newspaper	53
2.30	Reading your own paper	Upper-elementary and above	Authentic newspaper reading	54

---

3 Working with texts

3.1	Matching story and summary	Upper-elementary and above	Separating the essential from the inessential	55
-----	-------------------------------	-------------------------------	--	----

3.2	Same name, no relative	Intermediate and above	Ordinary people in newspapers	56
3.3	The short, short story	Elementary and above	Newspaper 'snippets'	57
3.4	Separating news and comment	Upper-intermediate and above	Raising awareness of bias in political writing	58
3.5	Why the headline?	Intermediate and above	How headlines relate to stories	59
3.6	Which writer?	Upper-intermediate and above	Different story types and different styles	61
3.7	How original is the language?	Intermediate and above	Cliché and original language	61
3.8	Grading for difficulty	Intermediate and above	Assessing the readability of newspaper stories	63
3.9	Finding stories	Intermediate and above	Categorizing stories by type	64
3.10	Enough is enough	Intermediate and above	When a paper is too boring be worth reading	64
3.11	Rejects	Intermediate and above	Discriminating between newspaper contents	65
3.12	Same theme, different treatments	Intermediate and above	Various newspaper treatments of a single topic	66
3.13	Reconstructing stories	Intermediate and above	How story contents are structured	67
3.14	Identical and fraternal twins	Intermediate and above	Similarity and difference in treatments of the same story	69
3.15	One story, many versions	Intermediate and above	Attributes of particular newspapers and stories	71
3.16	Stories and headlines 1	Intermediate and above	How story specific is a headline?	72
3.17	Stories and headlines 2	Intermediate and above	How story specific is a headline?	73
3.18	Exaggeration and inaccuracy	Intermediate and above	Accuracy and truth	73
3.19	Fleshing stories out	Upper-elementary and above	Appropriate contents for newspaper stories	74
3.20	Skeleton stories	Intermediate and above	Familiarization with newspaper content	75
3.21	Completing a story	Intermediate and above	The sensational and the down-to-earth	76
3.22	Combining stories	Intermediate and above	Human interest story subject-matter	78

---

4 Working with pictures

4.1	What is a picture?	Elementary and above	What is neither text nor picture	80
4.2	Picture categories	Elementary and above	What is most commonly illustrated	80
4.3	Mood pictures	Elementary and intermediate	Dominant themes in newspaper pictures	81
4.4	Appropriate pictures	Intermediate and above	What is included in and omitted from newspaper pictures	82
4.5	Picture visualization	Elementary and above	The detailed composition of newspaper pictures	82
4.6	Finding stories for pictures	Intermediate and above	What can be illustrated in a newspaper story	83
4.7	Finding pictures for stories	Upper-elementary and above	Which pictures can illustrate a particular story	84
4.8	Matching pictures and stories	Upper-elementary and above	Matching pictures and text	85
4.9	Predicting headlines and stories	Upper-elementary and above	How pictures enable understanding of a text	86
4.10	Captions	Upper-elementary and above	Captions	86
4.11	Best picture, story, and headline	Intermediate and above	Qualities of different newspaper presentations	88
4.12	Picture awards	Upper-elementary and above	Looking for quality and relevance in pictures	88
4.13	My picture	Elementary and above	Relating to pictures	89
4.14	My picture and my story	Upper-elementary and above	Pictures as guides to accompanying stories	90
4.15	The good, the bad, and the ugly	All levels	Making aesthetic judgements about newspaper pictures	91

---

5 Project work

5.1	From news to news story	Intermediate and above	Half-day project: writing and layout	93
5.2	Being a journalist	Intermediate and above	Half-day project: acting as a journalist	94
5.3	Readers' competitions	Upper-intermediate and above	Half-day project: designing a competition	96
5.4	Radio reviews	Upper-intermediate and above	Half-day project: stories' relative importance	97
5.5	Papers from the past	Intermediate and above	Half-day project: reconstructing the past	101

5.6	Surveys	Intermediate and above	Occasional project: assumptions in newspapers	102
5.7	Topics in the news	Upper-intermediate and above	Occasional project: following ongoing themes	105
5.8	Class newspapers	Intermediate and above	Occasional project: making a newspaper	106
5.9	Collages	Intermediate and above	Occasional or ongoing project: articles on a theme	106
5.10	Awards	Intermediate and above	Occasional or ongoing project: looking for quality	108
5.11	Will it run?	Intermediate and above	Ongoing project: following ongoing stories	108
5.12	People in the news	Intermediate and above	Occasional or ongoing project: background knowledge	109
5.13	Winners and losers	Elementary and above	Ongoing project: familiarity with people in the news	111
5.14	The picture gallery	Elementary to intermediate	Occasional or ongoing project: the most photographed people	112

---

6 Personal responses

6.1	Your headlines, my stories	Upper-elementary and above	Predicting newspaper story content	113
6.2	What's happening to people like me?	Intermediate and above	Discovering what makes people newsworthy	114
6.3	Which do you choose?	Intermediate and above	The subject-matter of newspaper stories	115
6.4	A present from the Press	Elementary and above	How far are newspaper materials acceptable to others?	116
6.5	A collage for a friend	Intermediate and above	Discriminating between newspaper stories	116
6.6	I chose this story because ...	Intermediate and above	How many stories relate to the reader	117
6.7	That's nearly me	Upper-elementary and above	The motives of people in the newspapers	118
6.8	Who would I be?	Upper-elementary and above	One's own experience and that of the newsworthy	118
6.9	Someone I'd change places with—well, nearly	Intermediate and above	Relating to the newsworthy	119
6.10	Sharing a chosen story	Upper-elementary and above	Presenting and discussing newspaper stories	120

6.11	Classifying stories	Intermediate and above	Judging newspaper materials affectively	121
6.12	Categories of story	Intermediate and above	Categorizing newspaper story types	122
6.13	A story I associate with	Intermediate and above	Associating with newspaper stories	122
6.14	A story I relate to	Upper-elementary and above	Relating newspaper stories to experience	123
6.15	Reacting	Upper-elementary and above	Reacting to newspaper articles	124
6.16	Brainstorming responses	Intermediate and above	Responding authentically to newspaper stories	125
6.17	Was it worth reading?	Upper-elementary and above	Assessing the quality of newspaper articles	126
6.18	Yuk	Upper-intermediate and above	Tasteless popular journalism	127
6.19	Affective language	Intermediate and above	How newspapers play on emotions	128

---

Appendix				130
-----------------	--	--	--	-----

---

Bibliography				132
---------------------	--	--	--	-----

---