

Contents

Preface	ix
Part 1
THE EMOTIVE THEORY OF MORAL JUDGEMENT	1
1. THE BACKGROUND TO THE EMOTIVE THEORY	3
1. Moore's refutation of naturalism	3
2. Logical atomism	7
3. Logical positivism	18
2. A. J. AYER	21
1. The emotive analysis of ethical terms	21
2. The principle of verification	26
3. The logical positivist theory of meaning	31
4. An assessment of emotivism	37
3. C. L. STEVENSON	41
1. Ethical disagreement	41
2. The meaning of ethical statements	45
3. The two patterns of analysis	49
4. Disagreement in attitude	53
5. Emotive meaning	59
6. The second pattern of analysis	63
	v

4. A LAST LOOK AT THE EMOTIVE THEORY	67
1. Prescriptive emotivism	67
2. The emotive theory and the status of ethics	74
3. The emotive character of ethical terms	77
5. INTERLUDE: A NEW APPROACH TO MEANING AND LANGUAGE	82

Part 2

THE FUNCTION OF ETHICAL STATEMENTS	93
6. J. O. URMSON	95
1. Grading	95
2. Are grading labels non-descriptive?	99
3. Grading criteria	105
7. R. M. HARE	109
1. Moral judgements and imperatives	109
2. The logic of imperatives and of moral principles	112
3. The function of value terms	117
4. The arguments	121
5. The theory	130
6. A consequence of the theory	133
7. A rational basis of ethics	139
8. A postscript on prescriptivism	150
8. P. H. NOWELL-SMITH	154
1. The logic of adjectives	155
2. The logic of moral terms	160
3. Meaning, use, and value terms	165
4. The classification of adjectives	171
5. The analysis of good	181
6. The analysis of ought	190

Part 3

THE 'GOOD REASONS' APPROACH	195
9. STEPHEN TOULMIN	197
1. The complexity of moral language	197
2. Good reasons in ethics	201
3. Moral judgement	205
4. Ethical reasoning	208
5. The criterion of good reasons	213
10. KURT BAIER	218
1. Value judgements	219
2. The best thing to do	222
3. The moral point of view	225
4. Can moral judgements be objectively true or false?	229
5. Morality and the moral point of view	234

Part 4

THE NATURE OF MORAL JUDGEMENT	239
11. THE LOGICAL STATUS OF MORAL JUDGEMENTS	241
1. The question of intention	241
2. Meaning and criteria	250
3. The meaning of good	258
4. The criteria of goodness	271
12. THE ULTIMATE CRITERION OF MORALITY	280
1. Statement of the theory	280
2. Defence of the theory	292
3. Why are we moral?	308
BIBLIOGRAPHY	323