

Contents

Introduction	v
Acknowledgments	xv
Table of legislation	xix
Table of cases	xxi

1	Limits arising from the nature of law	1
A	The nature of law	1
B	The effectiveness of Law : inherent limitations on its effectiveness	28
2	Limits from the nature of society	45
A	Limits on law from the nature of society	49
B	Limits from the ambitions of the legislator	67
3	Limits of communication, reception or acceptance	73
A	Law the unknown	73
B	Acceptance of law	81
4	Environmental and social limitations on law: translocation of laws	99
A	The local social and cultural environment	99
B	Translocation of laws	109
5	Exclusion of law by other normative systems	121
A	Detection of the legal message in competition with other normative messages	121
B	The law in competition with other normative systems: exclusion or weakening of the legal prescription	139
6	Limits on the utility of law for social transformation	161
A	Law as model	168
B	Law as programme	174

xviii Contents

7 The no-law state: power, dictate and discretion 237

8 The 'house-mate' or common-law wife 259

Conclusions 287

A guide to further reading 291

Glossary 309

Index 311